The Meaning of the Millennium Robert G. Clouse, 2025-10-21 Christ is coming again Since the first century Christians have agreed that Christ will return But since that time there have also been many disagreements How will Christ return When will he return What sort of kingdom will he establish What is the meaning of the millennium These questions persist today Four major views on the millennium have had both a long history and a host of Christian adherents In this Spectrum Multiview volume Robert G Clouse brings together proponents of each view George Eldon Ladd on historic premillennialism Herman A Hoyt on dispensational premillennialism Loraine Boettner on post millennialism and Anthony A Hoekema on amillennialism After each view is presented proponents of the three competing views respond from their own perspectives Here you ll encounter a lively and productive debate among respected Christian scholars that will help you gain clearer and deeper understanding of the different ways the church approaches the meaning of the millennium Spectrum Multiview Books offer a range of viewpoints on contested topics within Christianity giving contributors the opportunity to present their position and also respond to others in this dynamic publishing format

Evangelical Theological Method Stanley E. Porter, Steven M. Studebaker, 2018-07-10 How should one approach the task of theology This Spectrum volume brings together five evangelical theologians with distinctly different approaches to the theological task who present their own approach and respond to each of the other views Emerging from this theological conversation is an awareness of our methodological commitments and the benefits that each can bring to the theological task

Original Sin and the Fall J. B.

Stump, Chad Meister, 2020-06-30 Throughout the church's history Christians have disagreed over many particular questions surrounding humanity's fall. In this Spectrum Multiview book contributors present five views on these questions: Augustinian, Reformed, Moderate Reformed, Wesleyan, Eastern Orthodox, and a Reconceived view, offering both an articulation of their own view and responses to the others. God and Time Gregory E. Ganssle, 2025-10-16 The eternal God has created the universe. And that universe is time-bound. How can we best understand God's relationship with our time-bound universe? For example, does God experience each moment of time in succession, or are all times present to God? How we think of God and time has implications for our understanding of the nature of time, the creation of the universe, God's knowledge of the future, God's interaction with his creation, and the fullness of God's life. In this Spectrum Multiview volume four notable philosophers skillfully take on this difficult topic, all writing from within a Christian framework yet contending for different views. Paul Helm argues that divine eternity should be construed as a state of absolute timelessness. Alan G. Padgett maintains that God's eternity is more plausibly to be understood as relative timelessness. William Lane Craig presents a hybrid view that combines timelessness with omnitemporality. And Nicholas Wolterstorff advocates a doctrine of unqualified divine temporality. Each essay is followed by responses from the other three contributors and a final counter response from the original essayist, making for a lively exchange of ideas. Editor Gregory E. Ganssle provides a helpful introduction to the debate and its significance. Together these five scholars conduct readers on a stimulating and mind-stretching journey into one of the most controversial and challenging areas of theology today. Spectrum Multiview Books offer a range of viewpoints on contested topics within Christianity, giving contributors the opportunity to present their position and also respond to others in this dynamic publishing format. Interpreter: A Journal of Mormon Scripture, Volume 3 (2013) The Interpreter Foundation, 2013-03-04 This is volume 3, 2013, of Interpreter: A Journal of Mormon Scripture by the Interpreter Foundation. It contains articles on diverse topics such as the relationship between faith and reason, a book review of Comparing and Evaluating the Scriptures: A Timely Challenge for Jews, Christians, Muslims, and Mormons, the biblical and non-biblical quotes from Paul, a book review of Four Views on the Spectrum of Evangelicalism, an analysis of the parallel narratives of Ammon1 and Ammon2, a book review of Forgery and Counterforgery: The Use of Literary Deceit in Early Christian Polemics, an analysis of directions in the Book of Mormon, Nephite insights into Israelite worship, a book review of Brigham Young Pioneer Prophet, and a possible explanation for one day to a cubit as found in facsimile 2 of the Book of Abraham. God and the Problem of Evil Chad Meister, James K. Dew Jr., 2017-05-16 The problem of evil has produced many responses and elicited vigorous debate. In this multiview book five philosophical theologians discuss and defend different solutions to this ancient problem: Phillip Cary on the classic view, William Lane Craig on Molinism, William Hasker on open theism, Thomas J. Oord on essential kenosis, and Stephen Wykstra on skeptical theism. Justification James K. Beilby, Paul Rhodes Eddy, 2011-11-10 Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Rom 5:1. When Paul wrote these words he seemed confident he had made himself clear But for centuries the Pauline doctrine of justification has been a classic point of interpretation and debate in Christian exegesis and theology And while in recent decades there have been moments of hopeful convergence among the various traditions of the Western church the fine print often reveals more facets and distinctions than ever before This volume focuses on five views of justification and calls on representative proponents to set forth their case and then respond to each other The five views are Traditional Reformed Michael S Horton Progressive Reformed Michael F Bird New Perspective James D G Dunn Deification or Theosis Veli Matti K rkk inen Roman Catholic Gerald O Collins and Oliver Rafferty In addition editors James Beilby Paul R Eddy and Steven E Enderlein provide an extensive introduction to the issues informing this important debate This distinguished forum of biblical interpreters and theologians offers a lively and informative engagement with the biblical historical and contemporary understandings of justification Justification Five Views is not only a fascinating probe into Paul s meaning it is also a case book in theological method

Chadwick Thornhill,2019-08-13 Does God suffer Does God experience emotions Does God change This Spectrum Multiview volume brings together four theologians who make a case for their own view ranging from a traditional affirmation of divine impassibility the idea that God does not suffer to the position that God is necessarily and intimately affected by creation and then each contributor responds to the others views

God and Morality R. Keith Loftin,2012-08-28 Is morality dependent upon belief in God Is there more than one way for Christians to understand the nature of morality Is there any agreement between Christians and atheists or agnostics on this heated issue In God and Morality Four Views four distinguished voices in moral philosophy articulate and defend their place in the current debate between naturalism and theism Christian philosophers Keith Yandell and Mark Linville and two self identified atheist agnostics Evan Fales and Michael Ruse clearly and honestly represent their differing views on the nature of morality Important differences as well as areas of overlap emerge as each contributor states their case receives criticism from the others and responds Of particular value for use as an academic text these four essays and responses covering the naturalist moral non realist naturalist moral realist moral essentialist and moral particularist views will foster critical thinking and contribute to the development of a well informed position on this very important issue
