History of Intellectual Culture 1/2022 Charlotte A. Lerg,Johan Östling,Jana Weiß,2022-10-24 With concepts of participation discussed in multiple disciplines from media studies to anthropology from political sciences to sociology the first issue of the new yearbook History of Intellectual Culture HIC dedicates a thematic section to the way knowledge can and arguably must be conceptualized as participatory Introducing and exploring participatory knowledge the volume aims to draw attention to the potential of looking at knowledge formation and circulation through a new lens and to open a dialogue about how and what concepts and theories of participation can contribute to the history of knowledge By asking who gets to participate in defining what counts as knowledge and in deciding whose knowledge is circulated modes of participation enter into the examination of knowledge on various levels and within multiple cultural contexts The articles in this volume attest to the great variety of approaches contexts and interpretations of participatory knowledge from the sociological projects of the Frankfurt School to the Uppsala based Institute for Race Biology from the Argentinian National Folklore Survey to current hashtag activism and Covid 19 archive projects HIC sees knowledge as rooted in social and political structures determined by modes of transfer and produced in collaborative processes The notion of participatory knowledge highlights in a compelling way how knowledge is rooted in cultural practices and social configurations

Experimental Museology Marianne Achiam, Michael Haldrup, Kirsten Drotner, 2021-06-28 Experimental Museology scrutinizes innovative endeavours to transform museum interactions with the world Analysing cutting edge cases from around the globe the volume demonstrates how museums can design apply and assess new modes of audience engagement and participation Written by an interdisciplinary group of researchers and research led professionals the book argues that museum transformations must be focused on conceptualizing and documenting the everyday challenges and choices facing museums especially in relation to wider social political and economic ramifications In order to illuminate the complexity of these challenges the volume is structured into three related key dimensions of museum practice namely institutions representations and users Each chapter is based on a curatorial design proposed and performed in collaboration between university based academics and a museum Taken together the chapters provide insights into a diversity of geographical contexts fields and museums thus building a comprehensive and reflexive repository of design practices and formative experiments that can help strengthen future museum research and design Experimental Museology will be of great value to academics and students in the fields of museum gallery and heritage studies as well as architecture design communication and cultural studies It will also be of interest to museum professionals and anyone else who is interested in learning more about experimentation and design as resources in museums The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

The Participatory Condition in the Digital Age Darin Barney, Gabriella Coleman, Christine Ross, Jonathan Sterne, Tamar Tembeck, 2016-11-01 Just what is the participatory condition It is the situation in which taking part in something with others has become both environmental and normative The fact that we have always participated does not mean we have always lived under the participatory condition What is distinctive about the present is the extent to which the everyday social economic cultural and political activities that comprise simply being in the world have been thematized and organized around the priority of participation Structured along four axes investigating the relations between participation and politics surveillance openness and aesthetics The Participatory Condition in the Digital Age comprises fifteen essays that explore the promises possibilities and failures of contemporary participatory media practices as related to power Occupy Wall Street the Arab Spring uprisings worker owned cooperatives for the post Internet age paradoxes of participation media activism open source projects participatory civic life commercial surveillance contemporary art and design and education This book represents the most comprehensive and transdisciplinary endeavor to date to examine the nature place and value of participation in the digital age Just as in 1979 when Jean Fran ois Lyotard proposed that the postmodern condition was characterized by the questioning of historical grand narratives The Participatory Condition in the Digital Age investigates how participation has become a central preoccupation of our time Contributors Mark Andrejevic Pomona College Bart Cammaerts London School of Economics and Political Science LSE Nico Carpentier Vrije Universiteit Brussel VUB Free University of Brussels and Charles University in Prague Julie E Cohen Georgetown University Kate Crawford MIT Alessandro Delfanti University of Toronto Christina Dunbar Hester University of Southern California Rudolf Frieling California College of Arts and the San Francisco Art Institute Salvatore Iaconesi La Sapienza University of Rome and ISIA Design Florence Jason Edward Lewis Concordia University Rafael Lozano Hemmer Graham Pullin University of Dundee Trebor Scholz The New School in New York City Cayley Sorochoan McGill University Bernard Stiegler Institute for Research and Innovation in Paris Krzysztof Wodiczko Harvard Graduate School of Design Jillian C York
