Irène Eynat-Confino, 1987 Eynat Confino goes beyond the usual consideration of Craig s purported theories of the actor scenery and the scene painter to get at the heart of Craig s idea of theater She draws not only on the research of contemporary Craig scholars but on material hitherto unavailable his writings and daybooks and the writings of friends She ties Craig s encounter with Isadora Duncan to a decisive modification in his notion of movement To have an instrument more controllable than the actor he invented the ber marionette a giant puppet Craig also invented the Scene a kinetic stage the screens that brought him worldwide fame were simply an adaptation of this concept Eynat Confino argues that a scenario Craig wrote in 1905 here published for the first time reveals a theosophical system like that of Blake a system that was the main force motivating Craig s artistic quest In her final chapter she carefully examines the psychological aesthetic and circumstantial factors that kept Craig from completing his work to bring friendliness humor love ease peace to the world
