The Masterpiece The Jorn Utzon A Secret Life:

The Masterpiece Philip Drew, 1999 Jørn Utzon and Transcultural Essentialism Adrian Carter, Marja Sarvimäki, 2021-11-04 This book introduces and defines the burgeoning concepts of transculturalism and essentialism and how they relate to one another as articulated with reference to the work of Jørn Utzon. It introduces critical contemporary perspectives of the design thinking and career of this renowned Danish architect internationally recognised for his competition winning iconic design for the Sydney Opera House, an outstanding exemplar of transcultural essentialism in architecture. Transcultural essentialism is analysed through the lens of critical regionalism and architectural phenomenology with emphasis on the sense of place and tectonics in Utzon's architectural works. It provides a new understanding of the Danish architect as an early proponent of a still emergent and increasingly relevant direction in architecture. Going beyond biographical studies, it presents a more comprehensive understanding of the broad range of transcultural influences that formed his thinking. The volume includes numerous previously unpublished photographs, drawings and interviews with Utzon's family members, former students and colleagues, offering a significant contribution to the existing body of knowledge for any architecture scholar interested in Utzon's work and design principles. The book also comprises a Foreword by eminent architecture theorist Juhani Pallasmaa in which he provides insights into the wider architectural and cultural context of Utzon's worldview.

The Saga of Sydney Opera House Peter Murray, 2003-09-02 Peter Murray's compelling and highly readable biography of the building presents both sides of the story. Using previously unpublished files and papers, Murray has managed to unravel one of the most intriguing architectural controversies of recent times: what really happened when they built Sydney Opera House.

The Opera House Peter FitzSimons, 2022-03-30 The sun did not know how beautiful its light was until it was reflected off this building. Louis Kahn, US architect. If only these walls and this land could talk. The Sydney Opera House is a breathtaking building recognised around the world as a symbol of modern Australia. Along with the Taj Mahal and other World Heritage sites, it is celebrated for its architectural grandeur and the daring and innovation of its design. It showcases the incomparable talents involved in its conception, construction and performance history. But this stunning house on Bennelong Point also holds many secrets and scandals. In his gripping biography, Peter FitzSimons marvels at how this magnificent building came to be, details its enthralling history and reveals the dramatic stories and hidden secrets about the people whose lives have been affected both negatively and positively by its presence. He shares how a conservative 1950s state government had the incredible vision and courage to embark on this nation-defining structure, how an architect from Denmark and construction workers from Australia and abroad invented new techniques to bring it to completion, how ambition, betrayal, professional rivalry, sexual intrigue, murder, bullying and breakdowns are woven into its creation, and how it is now acknowledged as one of the wonders and masterpieces of human ingenuity. In The Opera House, Peter FitzSimons captures the extraordinary stories around this building that are as mesmerising as the light catching on its white sails.

Sydney Opera House at 50 Andrew Botros, 2023-08-31 There is no more consequential building created in the 20th century no other building has so comprehensively defined a city stretched the technology of its day and required as much toil of its people 50 years after the opening of the Sydney Opera House it is easy to assume the inevitability of the structure that stands but this was Australia's moon project It pushed international capability to breaking point and absorbed vast teams of talented individuals into the unknown experimenting with new techniques for years Only through the collective can we understand its story With the benefit of key first hand accounts now publicly known this book lays out the critical moments for Jorn Utzon and the building's key designers as they played out at Sydney's world heritage site

Structures and Architecture Paulo J.

Cruz,2016-10-14 Although the disciplines of architecture and structural engineering have both experienced their own historical development their interaction has resulted in many fascinating and delightful structures To take this interaction to a higher level there is a need to stimulate the inventive and creative design of architectural structures and to persuade architects and structural engineers to further collaborate in this process exploiting together new concepts applications and challenges This set of book of abstracts and full paper searchable CD ROM presents selected papers presented at the 3rd International Conference on Structures and Architecture Conference ICSA2016 organized by the School of Architecture of the University of Minho Guimar es Portugal July 2016 to promote the synergy in the collaboration between the disciplines of architecture and structural engineering

PAGON Espen Johnsen,2023-10-05 Through the 1940s and 1950s PAGON Progressive Architects Group Oslo Norway was an alliance of young CIAM affiliated Norwegian architects known for their innovative joint projects As a group PAGON went on to become largely overlooked in the history of modern architecture even though its individual members which included Sverre Fehn J rn Utzon Arne Korsmo and Christian Norberg Schulz became defining figures in Scandinavian and international modernism This book tells the story of PAGON for the first time offering an impressive account of the group s projects buildings and approach and demonstrating why PAGON s projects are ripe for reappraisal in the international history of modern architecture It shows how PAGON s architecture constitutes a unique continuity between the Scandinavian functionalism of the late 1930s and the modern movement in the US and an important transitional stage before the emergence of the better known neo avant garde groups within CIAM and Team 10 Published as part of the Bloomsbury Studies in Modern Architecture series which brings to light the work of significant yet overlooked modernist architects this book fills a gap in our understanding of mid century modern architecture and highlights the internationally diverse nature of the modern movement

Le Corbusier in the Antipodes Antony Moulis,2020-12-30 This book considers the architect Le Corbusier s encounters with Australia and New Zealand as a two way exchange showing the impact of his ideas and projects on architects of the region whilst also revealing counterinfluences on Le Corbusier in his post war career that were activated by his contacts Compiled from detailed archival research undertaken at the Fondation Le Corbusier Paris and nationally based archives Le Corbusier in the Antipodes brings together a set of episodes placing them in context with the history of modern art architecture and urbanism in 20th century Australia and New Zealand Key exchanges between Le Corbusier and others never before described are presented and analyzed including Le Corbusier s contact with Australian architect Harry Seidler at Chandigarh Le Corbusier s drawing of the plan of Adelaide in 1950 and his creative collaboration with Jørn Utzon on art for the Sydney Opera House This book also includes analysis of previously unseen Le Corbusier artworks which formed part of the Utzon family collection In reading these personal and contingent moments of encounter the book puts forward new ways of understanding the dissemination and mediation of Le Corbusier's ideas and their effects in post war Australia and New Zealand. These antipodean contacts are set against the broader story of Le Corbusier's career questioning received interpretations of his design methods and current assumptions about the influence of his work in national contexts beyond Europe.

Structures and Architecture - Bridging the Gap and Crossing Borders Paulo J.S. Cruz, 2019-07-08. Structures and Architecture Bridging the Gap and Crossing Borders contains the lectures and papers presented at the Fourth International Conference on Structures and Architecture ICSA2019 that was held in Lisbon Portugal in July 2019. It also contains a multimedia device with the full texts of the lectures presented at the conference including the 5 keynote lectures and almost 150 selected contributions. The contributions on creative and scientific aspects in the conception and construction of structures on advanced technologies and on complex architectural and structural applications represent a fine blend of scientific technical and practical novelties in both fields. ICSA2019 covered all major aspects of structures and architecture including building envelopes, facade comprehension of complex forms, computer and experimental methods, futuristic structures, concrete and masonry structures, educating architects and structural engineers, emerging technologies, glass structures, innovative architectural and structural design, lightweight and membrane structures, special structures, steel and composite structures, structural design challenges, tall buildings, the borderline between architecture and structural engineering, the history of the relationship between architects and structural engineers, the tectonic of architectural solutions, the use of new materials, timber structures among others. This set of book and multimedia device is intended for a global readership of researchers and practitioners including architects, structural and construction engineers, builders and building consultants, constructors, material suppliers and product manufacturers and other professionals involved in the design and realization of architectural, structural and infrastructural projects.

The Operatic State Ruth Bereson, 2003-09-02. The Operatic State examines the cultural, financial and political investments that have gone into the maintenance of opera and opera houses in Europe, the USA and Australia. It analyses opera's nearly immutable form throughout wars, revolutions and vast social changes throughout the world. Bereson argues that by legitimising the power of the state through universally recognised ceremonial ritual, opera enjoys a privileged status across three continents, often to the detriment of popular and indigenous art forms.

Sharper 1980-2013 Lowell Tarling, 2018-10-01. Martin Sharp was an integral part of international Pop Art in the 1960s, magnified through his covers for OZ magazine in Sydney and London, his covers for Cream and posters of Dylan, Hendrix and Donovan. His efforts at making The Yellow House and Luna Park cultural precincts were aided by his screen prints and exhibitions to flaunt the work of others, especially the singer Tiny Tim. In this second of two volumes, Lowell Tarling offers us a way into the enigmatic and reclusive artist through his extensive interviews with Sharp and all of his trusted friends, touching on the many dramas of life.

I think what Lowell has done here is admirable removing himself from the narrative. This book will be of interest to a wider audience who don't even know who Martin is. I predict this book will become a genuine hit. Peter Kingston Participatory Culture and the Social Value of an Architectural Icon: Sydney Opera House Cristina Garduno Freeman, 2017-09-22 This book develops new and innovative methods for understanding the cultural significance of places such as the World Heritage listed Sydney Opera House. By connecting participatory media visual culture and social value Cristina Garduno Freeman contributes to a fast growing body of scholarship on digital heritage and the popular reception of architecture. In this her first book she opens up a fresh perspective on heritage as well as the ways in which people relate to architecture via participation on social media. Social media sites such as YouTube Pinterest Wikipedia Facebook and Flickr as well as others become places for people to express their connections with places for example the Sydney Opera House. Garduno Freeman analyses real world examples from souvenirs to opera house shaped cakes and untangles the tangible and intangible ways in which the significance of heritage is created disseminated and maintained. As people's encounters with World Heritage become increasingly mediated by the digital sphere there is a growing imperative for academics professionals and policy makers to understand the social value of significant places. This book is beneficial to academics students and professionals of architecture. New Directions in Copyright Law Fiona Macmillan, Kathy Bowrey, 2006-08-29 This book the third in the series follows the themes considered in the first two volumes and brings together perspectives on copyright from law politics economics cultural studies and social theory in an effort to forge a truly coherent and meaningful agenda for the future of copyright. It comprises thoughtful critical and often challenging contributions from an international multidisciplinary network of scholars. Sydney I.
