The Most Dangerous Game Richard Connell, 2018-06-30 The Most Dangerous Game Richard Connell When I shot some of his prize turkeys with it he did not punish me he complimented me on my marksmanship I killed my first bear in the Caucasus when I was ten My whole life has been one prolonged hunt I went into the army it was expected of noblemen s sons and for a time commanded a division of Cossack cavalry but my real interest was always the hunt I have hunted every kind of game in every land It would be impossible for me to tell you how many animals I have killed The general puffed at his cigarette After the debacle in Russia I left the country for it was imprudent for an officer of the Czar to stay there Many noble Russians lost everything I luckily had invested heavily in American securities so I shall never have to open a tearoom in Monte Carlo or drive a taxi in Paris Naturally I continued to hunt grizzliest in your Rockies crocodiles in the Ganges rhinoceroses in East Africa It was in Africa that the Cape buffalo hit me and laid me up for six months As soon We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience
