French Classics Made Easy Richard Grausman,2011-05-18 Classic French food is hotter than ever But one thing hasn t

changed few of us have the time the patience the technique or the cream and butter allowance to tackle the classics as presented by Julia Child's Mastering the Art of French Cooking. The good news is we don't need to. For the past 40 years Richard Grausman, America's premier culinary teacher, has been training American chefs in a simpler better way of French cooking and in French Classics Made Easy, a refreshed and updated edition of his original collection At Home with the French Classics, he shares all of his extraordinary innovations and techniques: Golden soufflés in ten minutes, A light and luscious chocolate mousse that can be made as a cake, a chocolate roll, soufflé or pudding, Plus Cassoulet, Boeuf Bourguignon, Coq au Vin, Bouillabaisse, Poached Salmon with Beurre Blanc in all 250 impeccably clear step by step recipes in range of anyone who knows how to boil water or dice an onion. When a step isn't critical, Grausman eliminates it. If something can be done in advance, he does it. Plus, he's cut the amount of butter, cream, egg yolks, salt and sugar; the result is health conscious recipes that don't compromise the essential nature of the dish. Techniques are illustrated throughout in line drawings. It's the grandness of French cuisine made accessible for both entertaining and everyday meals. 100 Recipes, America's Test Kitchen, 2015-10-13. A provocative handpicked collection of relevant and surprising essential recipes for today's cook. We have countless recipes at our disposal today, but what are the real keepers, the ones that don't just feed us when we're hungry or impress our friends on Saturday night, but inspire us to get into the kitchen. At the forefront of American cooking for more than 20 years, the editors at America's Test Kitchen have answered this question in an essential collection of recipes that you won't find anywhere else. 100 Recipes Everyone Should Know How to Make. Organized into three recipe sections: Absolute Essentials, Surprising Essentials, and Global Essentials, each recipe is preceded by a thought provoking essay that positions the dish. For example, Treating Pasta Like Rice Simplifies Everything, A Covered Pot Is a Surprisingly Good Place to Roast a Chicken, and Reimagine Pie in a Skillet to Simplify the Process. You'll find useful workday recipes like a killer tomato sauce that's almost as easy as opening a jar of the store-bought stuff, genius techniques for producing amazing flavor, try poaching chicken breasts over a garlic and soy spiked brine, trust us, it's that good, and familiar favorites reinvigorated: the best beef stew comes from Spain and it's even easier to make than the stateside stew you've been eating for years. Gorgeous photography shot right in the test kitchen accompanies every recipe, revealing the finished dish as well as highlights of its preparation. Likely to stir debate among anyone interested in food and cooking, 100 Recipes Everyone Should Know How to Make provides a snapshot of how we cook today and will galvanize even the most jaded cook to get into the kitchen.
