Developing and Supporting Multiculturalism and Leadership Development Enakshi Sengupta, Patrick Blessinger, Mandla Makhanya, 2020-09-23 The modern notion of humanism centres on the core qualities in all humans agency dignity and development primarily concerned with addressing contemporary human needs concerns and problems This book has an interdisciplinary focus on the development of human capacity at all levels with the view that higher education is well suited for all

Enlarging the Scope of Peace Psychology Mohamed Seedat, Shahnaaz Suffla, Daniel J. Christie, 2016-12-06 With the major goal of building an inclusive international community that promotes peace related research and action this volume reflects on local national and global peace engagement and works towards transdisciplinary understandings of the role of psychology in peace conflict and violence Drawn primarily from 14th Biennial International Symposium on the Contributions of Psychology the chapters focus on peacemaking or the pursuit of harmony in human relations and peacebuilding or equity in human relations with a special emphasis on voices from typically underrepresented areas in psychology such as the Global South In order to move beyond a Western centered idea of peace psychology the volume is divided into two major parts The first half of the volume puts an emphasis on peace psychology research and praxis in a number of geohistorical contexts including Malaysia Northern Ireland Thailand and Kashmir that bear on conflict harmony and equity in human relations Chapters in the second half of the volume fulfill the mandate of Biennial Symposia namely to create more equity in the production of peace theory and praxis by bringing forward the voices of scholars and change agents that are often unheard in peace discourses including a number of scholars and chapters from South Africa Additionally throughout the chapters the authors and editors of the volume emphasize emancipatory agendas as an important alternative to militarism and state sponsored violence With the aim of bringing forward voices from cultures and situations that are typically not included or highly visible in peace discourses Enlarging the Scope of Peace Psychology in Invited and Invented Spaces African and World Regional Contributions is a thought provoking timely and informative work Psychologists anthropologists sociologists political scientists activists public policy makers and all those interested in promoting peace and justice are sure to find this an invaluable and illuminating resource African Philosophy and Environmental Conservation Jonathan

Chimakonam,2017-10-04 African Philosophy and Environmental Conservation is about the unconcern for and marginalisation of the environment in African philosophy The issue of the environment is still very much neglected by governments corporate bodies academics and specifically philosophers in the sub Saharan Africa The entrenched traditional world views which give a place of privilege to one thing over the other as for example men over women is the same attitude that privileges humans over the environment This culturally embedded orientation makes it difficult for stake holders in Africa to identify and confront the modern day challenges posed by the neglect of the environment In a continent where deep rooted cultural and religious practices as well as widespread ignorance determine human conduct towards the environment it becomes difficult to curtail much less overcome the threats to our environment It shows that to a large extent the African cultural privileging of men over women and of humans over the environment somewhat exacerbates and makes the environmental crisis on the continent intractable For example it raises the challenging puzzle as to why women in Africa are the ones to plant the trees and men are the ones to fell them Contributors address these salient issues from both theoretical and practical perspectives demonstrating what African philosophy could do to ameliorate the marginalisation which the theme of environment suffers on the continent Philosophy is supposed to teach us how to lead the good life in all its forms why is it failing in this duty in Africa specifically where the issue of environment is concerned This book which trail blazes the field of African Philosophy and Environmental Ethics will be of great interest to students and scholars of Philosophy African philosophy Environmental Ethics and Gender Studies ECEL 2019 18th European Conference on e-Learning Rikke Ørngreen,Bente Meyer,Mie Buhl ,2019-11-07
