Indo-Mozambicans in Maputo, 1947-1992 Nafeesah Allen, 2022-11-01 This book explores the experiences of Indo Mozambicans citizens and residents of Mozambique who can trace their origins to the Indian subcontinent a region affected by competing colonialisms during the twentieth century Drawing from ethnographic interviews the author illustrates why migration developed as both an identity marker and a survival tool for Indo Mozambicans living in Maputo in response to the series of independence movements and prolonged period of geo political uncertainty that extended from 1947 to 1992 A unique examination of post colonialism the book argues that four pivotal moments in history forced migratory patterns and ethnic identity formations to emerge among Indo Mozambicans namely the end of the British empire in India and the subsequent partition of India and Pakistan in 1947 the end of the Portuguese empire in India with the annexation of Goa Daman and Diu in 1961 the independence of Mozambique from Portugal in 1975 and the civil war of Mozambique from 1977 to 1992 Framing these historical markers as trigger points for shifts in migration and identity formation this book demonstrates the layered experiences of people subject to Portuguese colonialism and highlights the important perspective of those left behind in migration studies

The Transformation of Academic Work James Goodman, Claire Parfitt, Keiko Yasukawa, 2023-09-19 This book offers a unique grounded analysis of recent crises and transformations in academic work It charts international and Australia based efforts to overcome academic fragmentation and precarity and to advance agendas for the public university It is based on extensive qualitative interviews with academics and managers across several universities in Australia It finds new grounds for universal universities with decent jobs to serve the public good The book is aimed at students and scholars from sociology education politics and industrial relations and a wider readership concerned about the future of universities Analysis centres on a trade union led initiative in Australia aimed at decasualising universities and ensuing debates about the impact of academic fragmentation The authors argue for strengthening the teaching research nexus as the foundation stone for public purpose universities

Relational and Critical Perspectives on Education for Sustainable Development Margaretha Häggström, Catarina Schmidt, 2022-07-18 This volume focuses on the fourth Sustainable Development Goal SDG education to look at sustainability from various angles with the purpose of challenging preconceptions about what sustainable education might entail and how it should be conducted To this end the book assembles scholars from various research fields and disciplines who are willing to be at the cutting edge regarding sustainability and education on all levels with students in the ages of 6 15 Through this approach the text points towards a wild pedagogy in line with post sustainable thinking This involves agency and the role of nature itself as a co educator and promotes cultural changes and explorative processes of finding the wild the unknown and complexity in nature and thus of challenging the human need for control This approach is also in line with the 2030 Agenda an attempt to move from advocating predetermined behavioural change to embracing a pluralistic perspective on sustainability based on holistic views on education Such views include curiosity wonderment compassion and agency as guiding lights The book is structured into three sections based on three interrelated strands These strands are in various ways dependent on one another and further engaged with bringing education theory and practice together These strands are 1 Belonging and sensing 2 Critical thinking social justice and action competence and 3 Creating hope in a vanishing world These strands aim to increase our access to and understanding of the ways in which sustainability can be integrated into education and why The purpose of the text is to encourage educators of all kinds and levels as well as scholars in different fields to explore new perspectives on education for sustainable development The book examines probes in diverse academic fields and focuses on how to combine different approaches and content and therefore everyone interested in interdisciplinary and cross curricular teaching and learning should find this work enlightening
