Unisa Redidence Application For 2015:

Fees Must Fall Susan Booysen, 2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa More broadly it radically questioned the socio political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business the ruling elite and the liberation movement The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and its double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co opted students into their ranks to create co responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt Student voices dissect colonialism improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa feminism worker rights and meaningful education In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt Institutional Research in South African Higher Education Jan Botha, Nicole J Muller, 2016-11-01 The book provides a thorough overview of Institutional Research IR i e applied higher education research undertaken within universities in South Africa It is a collection of essays focusing on the character and institutional setting of IR how IR is embedded into the mechanisms of steering shaping and reforming higher education and what the major results were of IR in select thematic areas The book is a valuable resource for higher education researchers and social researchers in South Africa interested in higher education It also deserves to be read by practitioners and policymakers in the field of higher education in South Africa It serves as an interesting case study for higher education researchers all over the world Art and human rights Caroline Turner, Jen Webb, 2016-01-01 Provides a deeply researched account of contemporary Asian art movements focusing on the work of a select group of internationally renowned and politically engaged artists India Population Report K. S. James, T. V. Sekher, 2024-06-27 Studies various aspects of population in India providing a holistic narrative of the current scenario and future implications Global Iconoclasm: Contesting "Official" Mnemonic Landscapes Michael Ripmeester, Matthew W. Rofe, 2024-06-24 Geographers and others have been long aware that landscapes are neither natural or neutral This is particularly true of landscapes of memory Powerful groups inscribe such landscapes with both a preferred vision of the past and with sets of idealized societal values and morays Yet and despite the authoritative weight such landscapes carry they can be challenged Even before the monument topplings of 2020 groups across the globe were challenging official memory discourses This volume offers case studies of what might be considered global iconoclasm Drawing upon original international case studies this monograph critically engages with and reveals the dynamics of landscape contestation From the Tsunami Museum of Banda Aceh to the echoes of Mussolini's Fascist Italy by way of the decolonization of sites in Australia New Zealand Colombia and Africa the processes of landscape contestation are innovatively teased out by established and newly emerging scholars This book should be of interest to any scholar interested in the politics of mnemonic landscapes Imbewu Yesini Cypher,2016-12-14 The first collaboration between uHlanga and the Cape Youth Poetry Hub for Expression and Rhythm CYPHER Imbewu Yesini is a showcase of nine young poets from greater Cape Town and surrounds writing predominantly in Xhosa and English A journey through gender and identity Imbewu Yesini bears witness to the wounds and the narratives that have come to separate us as women and men and celebrating our power to shed worn petals and plant new seeds Contains an introductory essay by the editors Koleka Putuma and Javier Perez Between the Politics and Poetics of Gender and Identity How to Edit and Manage a Successful Scholarly Journal Iain Hay,Gareth Butler,Gerti Szili,2024-05-02 Drawing on the insights and experiences of authors editors and publishing professionals across the humanities arts and social sciences this How to guide offers practical advice on how to successfully navigate scholarly journal editorial work This Week in South Africa,1995 Land Reforms and Natural Resource Conflicts in Africa Tukumbi Lumumba-Kasongo,2015-10-16 This book is a critical examination of the place and role of land in Africa the role of land in political formation and national identification and the land as an economic resource within both national economic development and liberal globalization Colonial and post colonial conflicts have been rooted in four related claims the struggle over scarce resources especially access to land resources abundance of natural resources mismanaged or appropriated by both the states local power systems and multinationals weak or absent articulated land tenure policies leading to speculation or hybrid policy framework and the imperatives of the global liberalization based on the free market principles to regulate the land question and mineral appropriation issue The actualization of these combined claims have led to conflicts among ethnic groups or between them and governments This book is not only about conflicts but also about local policy achievements that have been produced on the land question It provides a critical understanding of the forces and claims related to land tenure systems as part of the state policy and its system of governance Cutting Edge Research Methods in Hospitality and Tourism Fevzi Okumus,S. Survival in the 'Dumping Grounds' Laura Evans, 2019-05-27 Survival in the Dumping Grounds examines a defining aspect of South Africa's recent past the history of apartheid era relocation While scholars and activists have long recognised the suffering caused by apartheid removals to the so called homelands the experiences of those who lived through this process have been more often obscured Drawing on extensive archival and oral history research this book examines the makings and the multiple meanings of relocation into two of the most notorious apartheid dumping grounds established in the Ciskei bantustan during the mid 1960s Sada and Ilinge Evans examines the local and global dynamics of the project of bantustan relocation and develops a multi layered analysis of the complex histories and ramifications of displacement and resettlement in the Ciskei The 1840 translation of the Gospel of Luke as a technology of power Itumeleng D. Mothoagae, 2024-07-26 In this book the author aims to explore the impact of 19th century translations of the Bible into indigenous languages with a specific focus on the Setswana translation The translations have had a profound effect on the religio cultural practices of the indigenous people leading to erosion and alteration of their traditions and identities I argue that it is crucial to consider the translator's intentions and the associated literature such as journals and letters to understand the translation process comprehensively The Setswana Bible was the first to be translated in Africa and tracing the intentions of Robert Moffat the first translator is imperative to understanding the impact of the translation on the receptor culture The methodology adopted is interdisciplinary drawing from linguistics African languages history English literature cultural studies black studies and theology I analyse the impact of the 1840 Gospel of Luke in the context of

Setswana culture in South Africa and my findings demonstrate that translations cannot be distinct from the translator To gain a deep understanding of the implications of such texts I adopt a methodology that analyses significant historical literature and primary sources including the records and works of The British and Foreign Bible Society The History of the London Missionary Society and the journals letters and writings of missionaries such as Robert Moffat and John Campbell

The Tunisian Womens Rights Movement Jane D Tchaïcha,Khedija Arfaoui,2017-07-14 Tunisian women have received significant attention for their active participation in preserving and extending women s rights since 2011 However their activism and latest achievements should be considered not a recent phenomenon but rather part and parcel of a distinctive local history that has included women as agents of change This book examines Tunisian women s lived experiences as individuals and as a group within a sociohistorical framework that uncovers the enduring feminine footprint over centuries and eventually underpins and defines their most recent fight for gender equality in postrevolutionary Tunisia The historic and current presentation of Tunisian women s public and civic engagement distinguishes between different types of women s objectives in order to examine women s activism holistically as it evolved in the local context The Tunisian Women s Rights Movement will be of interest to students and scholars of Tunisia North African and Middle East Studies and gender in the Arab world
