Diffractional Technospaces Federica Timeto,2016-03-09 The entanglements of information and materiality in our media environment that new information and communication technologies make increasingly mobile and locative changes the mediations between space and society The fluidity and continual reworking of the boundaries of contemporary technospaces the sociotechnical environments in which humans and machines relate and intersect is key to the production and consumption of contemporary technologies Theoretical analyses of communication and space have tended to engage in the representation of such changes without interrogating the representational instruments used at a broader methodological level Articulating a non representational perspective on knowledge production and artistic practices combined with an analysis of space this book offers a new performative and relational re turn to representation in contemporary technospaces The radically materialist posthumanist and performative position from which this situated aesthetics of technospaces is elaborated aligns this book not only with non representational theory but also with the theories of material feminism feminist geography situated epistemologies science and technology studies actor network theory performance studies and new media studies

Disrupting Shameful Legacies Claudia Mitchell,Relebohile Moletsane,2018-08-14 Much has been written in Canada and South Africa about sexual violence in the context of colonial legacies particularly for Indigenous girls and young women While both countries have attempted to deal with the past through Truth and Reconciliation Commissions and Canada has embarked upon its National Inquiry on Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls there remains a great deal left to do Across the two countries history legislation and the lived experiences of young people and especially girls and young women point to a deeply rooted situation of marginalization Violence on girls and women s bodies also reflects violence on the land and especially issues of dispossession What approaches and methods would make it possible for girls and young women as knowers and actors especially those who are the most marginalized to influence social policy and social change in the context of sexual violence Taken as a whole the chapters in Disrupting Shameful Legacies Girls and Young Women Speaking Back through the Arts to Address Sexual Violence which come out of a transnational study on sexual violence suggest a new legacy one that is based on methodologies that seek to disrupt colonial legacies by privileging speaking up and speaking back through the arts and visual practice to challenge the situation of sexual violence At the same time the fact that so many of the authors of the various chapters are themselves Indigenous young people from either Canada or South Africa also suggests a new legacy of leadership for change Claiming Identity Through Redefined Teaching in Construction Programs Mostafa, Sherif,Rahnamayiezekavat, Payam,2019-07-31 Without a rich learning source that presents state of the art pedagogy covering the key areas of contemporary practice the industrial field may fall out of line with the current times By reforming itself to embrace new norms such as social responsibility deploying modern construction methods including modular building and modernizing construction contracts the recent literary material will only positively influence the workforce of the world Claiming Identity Through Redefined Teaching in Construction Programs provides scholarly insights into the learning and teaching mechanisms developed at different institutions to address the ever changing attributes in the field of construction management Featuring topics that include artificial intelligence industrial law and operations management the book is ideal for educators industrial managers academics researchers and students

Hydrometallurgy Suresh Bhargava,Mark Pownceby,Rahul Ram,2018-07-02 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue Hydrometallurgy that was published in Metals The Foundation Directory Foundation Center,2006-03 The premier guide to America s top funders The new edition features key facts on the top 10 000 U S foundations by total giving indexed by name types of support subject field state key officials For ease of access over 1 100 entries new to this edition are also indexed Enhanced with more than 50 000 sample grants the Directory provides valuable insight into foundation giving priorities Data Curation and Information Systems Design from Australasia Julie Nichols,Bharat Mehra,2024-01-31 The need for decolonizing mismanagement practices in galleries libraries archives and museums of First Nations peoples materials and knowledge has been widely recognised Authors from Indigenous and non Indigenous backgrounds powerfully challenge entrenched assumptions of knowledge capture and dissemination of the western academy Enlarging the Scope of Peace Psychology Mohamed Seedat,Shahnaaz Suffla,Daniel J. Christie,2016-12-06 With the major goal of building an inclusive international community that promotes peace related research and action this volume reflects on local national and global peace engagement and works towards transdisciplinary understandings of the role of psychology in peace conflict and violence Drawn primarily from 14th Biennial International Symposium on the Contributions of Psychology the chapters focus on peacemaking or the pursuit of harmony in human relations and peacebuilding or equity in human relations with a special emphasis on voices from typically underrepresented areas in psychology such as the Global South In order to move beyond a Western centered idea of peace psychology the volume is divided into two major parts The first half of the volume puts an emphasis on peace psychology research and praxis in a number of geohistorical contexts including Malaysia Northern Ireland Thailand and Kashmir that bear on conflict harmony and equity in human relations Chapters in the second half of the volume fulfill the mandate of Biennial Symposia namely to create more equity in the production of peace theory and praxis by bringing forward the voices of scholars and change agents that are often unheard in peace discourses including a number of scholars and chapters from South Africa Additionally throughout the chapters the authors and editors of the volume emphasize emancipatory agendas as an important alternative to militarism and state sponsored violence With the aim of bringing forward voices from cultures and situations that are typically not included or highly visible in peace discourses Enlarging the Scope of Peace Psychology in Invited and Invented Spaces African and World Regional Contributions is a thought provoking timely and informative work Psychologists anthropologists sociologists political scientists activists public policy makers and all those interested in promoting peace and justice are sure to find this an invaluable and illuminating resource
