cars than for people and why American motor vehicles now consume one eighth of the world's total oil production But it doesn't have to be this way Shoup proposes new ways for cities to regulate parking namely charge fair market prices for curb parking use the resulting revenue to pay for services in the neighborhoods that generate it and remove zoning requirements for off street parking Such measures according to the Yale trained economist and UCLA planning professor will make parking easier and driving less necessary Join the swelling ranks of Shoupistas by picking up this book today You'll never look at a parking spot the same way again Metropolitan Transportation Planning, 2nd Edition John W. Dickey, 1983-06-01
