Vanity Fair Annotated Illustrated English Edition:

Vanity Fair and the Celestial City Isabel Rivers, 2018-07-25 In John Bunyan's The Pilgrim's Progress the pilgrims cannot reach the Celestial City without passing through Vanity Fair where everything is bought and sold In recent years there has been much analysis of commerce and consumption in Britain during the long eighteenth century and of the dramatic expansion of popular publishing Similarly much has been written on the extraordinary effects of the evangelical revivals of the eighteenth century in Britain Europe and North America But how did popular religious culture and the world of print interact It is now known that religious works formed the greater part of the publishing market for most of the century What religious books were read and how Who chose them How did they get into people's hands Vanity Fair and the Celestial City is the first book to answer these questions in detail It explores the works written edited abridged and promoted by evangelical dissenters Methodists both Arminian and Calvinist and Church of England evangelicals in the period 1720 to 1800 Isabel Rivers also looks back to earlier sources and forward to the continued republication of many of these works well into the nineteenth century The first part is concerned with the publishing and distribution of religious books by commercial booksellers and not for profit religious societies and the means by which readers obtained them and how they responded to what they read The second part shows that some of the most important publications were new versions of earlier nonconformist episcopalian Roman Catholic and North American works The third part explores the main literary kinds including annotated bibles devotional guides exemplary lives and hymns Building on many years research into the religious literature of the period Rivers discusses over two hundred writers and provides detailed case studies of popular and influential works Vanity Fair, 1860 The Book as Artefact, Text and Border Anne Mette Hansen, 2005 Books do not just contain texts books themselves are cultural artefacts which convey many meanings in their own right meanings which interact with the texts they contain Awareness of the many significances of books as cultural and textual objects reshapes the traditional disciplines of textual theory analytic bibliography codicology and palaeography while the advent of electronic books and digital methods for representing print books is introducing a new dimension to our understanding Seven essays in this volume ranging over medieval Portuguese and Swedish manuscripts eighteenth century Icelandic editions Australian playtexts Thackeray and Anita Brookner and Stefan George consider these questions from the broad perspective of textual scholarship Texts may exist on the borderland of word and not word or they may spring from borderlands of nation or culture or they may be considered from the margins of neighbouring disciplines So readers must set the texts within contexts to see the play of text against border Essays in this volume explore different texts against varying backgrounds Pound's Cantos Joyce's Ulysses Trollope's An Eye for an Eye Woolf's The Waves while essays by McGann and Lernout argue the dimensionality of text on the intersection of print and digital media Implicit in all these essays is the contention that textual scholarship must influence literary interpretation Two final essays focus directly on this in the cases of Melville's Moby Dick and Emily Dickinson's late fragments An extensive reviews section completes this volume An Annotated Arthur Schnitzler Bibliography Richard H. Allen, 2020-05-01 Originally published in 1967 Richard H Allen's volume with a foreword by Robert O Weiss was the first comprehensive bibliography of Arthur Schnitzler's writings including his literary works with translation and criticism philosophical reflections essays correspondence and medical writings together with general criticism and dissertations on the author Indices of titles personal names and periodicals make the material readily accessible Literary Gazette and Journal of Belles Lettres, Arts, Sciences, &c, 1848 The Book Buyer, 1867 Sotheran's Price Current of Literature, 1903 Sotheran's Price Current of Literature Henry Sotheran Ltd, 1903 Publishers' circular and booksellers' record, 1897 Dictionary of National Biography Leslie Stephen, Sir Sidney Lee, 1897 Dictionary of national biography, ed. by L. Stephen (and S. Lee). [With] Suppl. 3 vols.; Index and epitome [and] Errata Dictionary, 1897 The Athenaeum, 1905 A Guide to English Literature F. W. Bateson, 2017-09-04 At first glance A Guide to English Literature may seem to be no more than a short bibliography of English literature with perhaps rather more extensive and certainly more outspoken comments on the principal editions commentaries biographies and critical works than bibliographies usually provide But it is something more this guide contains long inter chapters that provide reinterpretations of the principal periods of English literature in the light of modern research as well as two final sections summarizing in unusual detail the literary criticism that exists in English and recent scholarship in the field The purpose of this book then is to provide the reader with convenient access to a disciplined study of the texts themselves This guide proposes itself as a new kind of literary history The conventional history of literature has often tended to become a substitute for the reading of the literature it describes the better the history the greater the temptation to substitute it The present combination of reading lists and inter chapters cannot be a substitute for anything else Meaningless as literature in themselves they nevertheless provide the necessary preliminary information to meaningful reading Since oddities of arrangement derive from these assumptions the authors are not arranged alphabetically Instead there are chronological compartments with the divisions circa 1500 1650 and 1800 in which authors succeed each other in the order of their births This pioneering handbook is primarily a bibliographical laborsaving device It is meant mostly for students and the general reader in that it stops where original research by the reader is expected to begin However the last chapter on literary scholarship is devoted specifically to the research specialist and provides indispensable equipment for the reader There is also a general section on literary criticism which will be of use to all Athenaeum James Silk Buckingham, John Sterling, Frederick Denison Maurice, Henry Stebbing, Charles Wentworth Dilke, Thomas Kibble Hervey, William Hepworth Dixon, Norman Maccoll, Vernon Horace Rendall, John Middleton Murry, 1876 A.L.A. Catalog American Library Association, 1904 A.L.A. Catalog, 1904 Vanity Fair, 2015 Literature, 1899 Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle, 1864 The Spectator, 1848
