In the Footsteps of the Ancients Ronald Witt, 2021-10-01 This monograph demonstrates why humanism began in Italy in the mid thirteenth century It considers Petrarch a third generation humanist who christianized a secular movement The analysis traces the beginning of humanism in poetry and its gradual penetration of other Latin literary genres and through stylistic analyses of texts the extent to which imitation of the ancients produced changes in cognition and visual perception The volume traces the link between vernacular translations and the emergence of Florence as the leader of Latin humanism by 1400 and why limited to an elite in the fourteenth century humanism became a major educational movement in the first decades of the fifteenth It revises our conception of the relationship of Italian humanism to French twelfth century humanism and of the character of early Italian humanism itself This publication has also been published in hardback please click here for details
