Tri State Auto Show:

The First Century of the Detroit Auto Show Robert Szudarek, 2000-01-15 This book looks at the first century of the Detroit Auto Show the largest auto show in the world for many years From the first show at the Detroit Light Guard Armory in 1899 to the January 1999 show at Cobo Hall this fascinating book details the show s evolution over 100 years and how it became the industry s most prominent event The First Century of the Detroit Auto Show introduces pioneers such as William Metzger who was instrumental in organizing the first show and played a prominent role in many shows of the early 1900s Each year s show is covered in a chapter which includes information on the major players of the show products featured size exhibitors decor opening ceremonies admission fares and entertainment The book features over 100 historical and nostalgic photos to bring the reader in touch with the culture of the automotive industry and society at the time A captivating account of the history of the industry s showcase event this book belongs on the bookshelves of every automotive historian enthusiast and engineer

Black Power in the Bluff City Shirletta Kinchen, 2024-01-12 During the civil rights era Memphis gained a reputation for having one of the South s strongest NAACP branches But that organization led by the city s black elite was hardly the only driving force in the local struggle against racial injustice In the late sixties Black Power proponents advocating economic political and cultural self determination effectively mobilized Memphis s African American youth using an array of moderate and radical approaches to protest and change conditions on their campuses and in the community While Black Power activism on the coasts and in the Midwest has attracted considerable scholarly attention much less has been written about the movement s impact outside these hotbeds In Black Power in the Bluff City Shirletta J Kinchen helps redress that imbalance by examining how young Memphis activists like Coby Smith and Charles Cabbage dissatisfied by the pace of progress in a city emerging from the Jim Crow era embraced Black Power ideology to confront such challenges as gross disparities in housing education and employment as well as police brutality and harassment Two closely related Black Power organizations the Black Organizing Project and the Invaders became central to the local black youth movement in the late 1960s Kinchen traces these groups participation in the 1968 sanitation workers strike including the controversy over whether their activities precipitated events that culminated in Martin Luther King s assassination and their subsequent involvement in War on Poverty programs The book also shows how Black Power ideology drove activism at the historically black LeMoyne Owen College scene of a 1968 administration building takeover and at the predominately white Memphis State University where African American students transformed the campus by creating parallel institutions that helped strengthen black student camaraderie and consciousness in the face of marginalization Drawing on interviews with activists FBI files newspaper accounts from the period and many other sources the author persuasively shows not only how an emerging generation helped define the black freedom struggle in Memphis but also how they applied the tenets of Black Power to shape the broader community Shirletta J Kinchen is an assistant professor in the Pan African Studies Department at the University of Louisville Middletown Pacemakers Ron Roberson,2002 Hot Rodding began in Southern California in the 1930s and had spread throughout the United States by the mid 1950s spawning the sport of drag racing and the advent of the Detroit muscle cars of the 60s and 70s Hot Rod Magazine and the National Hot Rod Association promoted the formation of responsible car clubs to combat the delinquent reputation of hot rodders earned through illegal street races and Hollywood s portrayal in B movies And thus were born the Middletown Pacemakers in 1951 The Pacemakers brought southern Ohio its first reliability runs 1952 custom auto shows 1954 and drag racing competitions setting national records 1958 63 64 and winning national championships 1963 64 65 When the hot rodders were not busy upgrading their drive train for more horsepower or chopping and channeling for improved performance they could often be seen on the streets of Middletown feeding expired parking meters or rescuing motorists whose cars had broken down or run out of gas By 1966 as was the fate of so many hot rod clubs the mass production of Detroit muscle cars ushered the Pacemakers to fold
