A Lifetime of Memories Thelma C. Fullwood, 2008-08-13 To have been created by God to be able to withstand the trauma of losing a family member is tribute to the wisdom of our Creator He has given us the tenacity to go on beyond the grief and sorrow We have the capacity to continue our lives with renewed knowledge and confidence in Him That innate ability allows us to be able to continue in a resource of hope This hope is that catalyst we use to grow from despair to greater anticipation and expectation As adults we must remember the impact of losing a loved one and realize that children also carry a pain that is just as real as our own Loss can carry with it a force that can be detrimental to their future growth and development as well Only when we realize this can we see the need to be as attentive and as sensitive to their needs in grief and sorrow as we would be to adults In this story Margies Aunt Clara loves the fact that Margie looks and acts so much as she did at her age An added bonus is that her own daughter Gloria who is close in age has a sister sister relationship with Margie that has developed over the years Aunt Clara feels that she has been blessed with two wonderful daughters that create happiness in her life Then Margie hears that an old illness of Aunt Claras has resurfaced and she is almost devastated Much of who she now is is a direct result of the time she has spent and wisdom she has gained from Aunt Clara Can Margie continue on with her life of vibrancy and stability We find out through the assistance of another friend Ms Winn who is widowed in A Lifetime of Memories find themselves can make a significant difference in their development their self esteem and their ability to think through problems in living Zelan a gifted and intuitive psychotherapist shows how the autistic's sense of self emerges during childhood She details how these autistic children's first friendships originate the pitfalls and pleasures they experience in relating to their peers their dreams and their fears of social contact These real life stories reveal what worked with autistic children and why Zelan offers prescriptive suggestions for parents and teachers based on her discoveries demonstrating humane ways of dealing with the often troubling problems of autism and of closing the gap between their world and ours Normal

The mention of an African autobiography often evokes images of a want and penury a childhood sullied by poverty and hopelessness and the predictable rags to riches narrative Not so for City Boy In this bold and refreshing account Dr Frank Njenga a leading psychiatrist and author weaves a compelling tale of growing up in an affluent neighbourhood attending a once European only school enjoying foreign travel in childhood and all the trappings of a good upbringing His account of the Mau Mau period as well as the post independence era is captivating With candour and charm he invites readers into the world that shaped him a world of books travel privilege and the rich tapestry of people who influenced his journey It is a story that turns tables on the notion that rural poverty and adversity in childhood are the building blocks of a successful life Rather City Boy offers a new lens through which to view adolescence in the 1960s personal ambition and what it takes to scale the heights of professional growth In City Boy Dr Njenga rewrites the script on success with elegance honesty and a rare clarity of thought Psychosocial Issues for Children and Adolescents in Disasters Anthony H.
