Introduction/Notes

Many people believe slavery and racism ended in 1865 with the Civil War. The reality was that slavery and racial hatred became so intertwined in the United States that they were still thriving by 1965, giving us a sense of enduring American traditions. Indeed, it wasn't until slavery became illegal throughout the U.S. government in 1865 that the nation's people first united to end slavery. The question is: how long did it take?

Slavery also spread to other parts of the world.
