PARAGRAPH What the course comprises 141 142 Number of times an exercise should be performed 143 Progressive difficulty and how obtained 144 147 Terminology 148 Respiration and its relation to exercise 149 151 Lessons 152 165 141 What the Course Comprises The course consists of one preliminary and six regular lessons Each lesson should be thoroughly mastered before an advance lesson is attempted It is recommended that one week each be devoted to the preliminary and the first lesson and two weeks to each of the following five 142 Nothing should be sacrificed for the sake of making the drill spectacular the physiological value of every exercise should be brought out fully and the disciplinary value precision smartness activity and unity of action must be insisted upon consistently and persistently By doing this instructors will lay the best foundation for the ready and precise acquirement of all other drills 143 The Number of Times an Exercise Should Be Performed This has not been prescribed as the number of repetitions any body of men may indulge in with benefit to themselves depends entirely upon the strength condition and aptitude of the men and upon the efficiency competence and judgment of the instructor who will find that he is defeating the purpose of this training if he fails to take these into consideration and does not proceed carefully and progressively both as to the quantity and the quality of the task he is exacting 144 Progressive Difficulty and How Obtained In general the amount of energy required to perform an exercise may be progressively increased by increased repetitions or increased cadence When this is done the increased difficulty is derived
