New Documents Illustrating Early Christianity, 4 Stephen Llewelyn,G. H. R. Horsley,1997-12-02 This series seeks to keep New Testament and early church researchers teachers and students abreast of emerging documentary evidence by reproducing and reviewing recently published Greek inscriptions and papyri that illumine the context in which the Christian church developed Produced by the Ancient History Documentary Research Centre at Macquarie University the New Docs volumes broaden the context of biblical studies and other related fields and provide a better understanding of the historical and social milieus of early Christianity Slavery as Salvation Dale B. Martin,2021-03-30 Early Christians frequently used metaphors about slavery calling themselves slaves of God and Christ and referring to their leaders as slave representatives of Christ Most biblical scholars have insisted that this language would have been distasteful to potential converts in the Greco

Roman world and they have wondered why early Christians such as Paul used the image of slavery to portray salvation In this book Dale B Martin addresses the issue by examining the social history and rhetorical and theological conventions of the times The first half of the book draws on a variety of historical sources inscriptions novels speeches dream handbooks and agricultural manuals to portray the complexity of slavery in the early Roman empire Concentrating on middle level managerial slaves Martin shows how slavery sometimes functioned as a means of upward social mobility and as a form of status by association for those slaves who were agents of members of the upper class For this reason say Martin slavery of Christ brought the Christian convert a degree of symbolic status and lent the Christian leader a certain kind of derived authority The second half of the book traces the Greco Roman use of political rhetoric that spoke about populist leaders as enslaved to their followers especially to members of the lower class This provides the context for Paul s claim in 1 Corinthians 9 that he has enslaved himself to all that is to those very people he is supposed to lead as an apostle Martin thus interprets this statement to mean that Paul identifies himself with the interests of persons with lower status in the Corinthian church calling on those with higher status to imitate his self debasement in order to further the interests of those below them on the social scale
