East de Groot,Maurits van den Boogert,2021-10-25 This volume based on both European and Ottoman sources investigates the commercial military and diplomatic relations between the Dutch and the English in the Levant from the early seventeenth to the early nineteenth century On the one hand there was a more or less constant commercial rivalry and there were moments of outright military hostility between the two powers On the other a common life in the Near East led to a form of solidarity which transcended the political situation in the home countries The role of the local population of the Levant of Ottoman officials and of the Greeks Armenians and other eastern Christians who intervened both as merchants and as embassy dragomans or interpreters was often decisive in influencing the dealings between the Dutch and English residents The nine papers examine these different aspects of a relationship which has never before been studied in a Levantine context

Staging Vice Charlotte Steenbrugge,2014-05-10 Characters representing various sins and vices became the stars of their respective theatrical traditions in the course of the late medieval and early modern period in both the Low Countries and England This study assesses the importance of such characters and especially the English Vice and Dutch sinnekens for our understanding of medieval and sixteenth century Dutch and English drama by charting diachronic developments and through synchronic comparisons The analysis of the functions as well as theatrical and meta theatrical aspects of these characters reveals how these plays were conditioned by their literary and social setting It sheds invaluable light on the subtly divergent appreciation of the concept of drama in these two regions and on their different use of drama as a didactic tool In a wider perspective this study also investigates how the moral plays and their negative characters reflect the changes in the intellectual and religious climate of the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries All Things Considered G. K. Chesterton, Sheba Blake, 2021-11-20 Whether you're a reader who is new to G K Chesterton's work or a longtime fan searching out more of his material this collection of short stories and essays is sure to fit the bill The pieces brought together in this volume display the full range of Chesterton's wide ranging intellect and the keen precision of his razor sharp prose The Eclectic Review Samuel Greatheed, Daniel Parken, Theophilus Williams, Josiah Conder, Thomas Price, William Hendry Stowell, Jonathan Edwards Ryland, Edwin Paxton Hood, 1860 This periodical is comprised mainly of book reviews The majority of the books reviewed are religious in nature however books with various topics most notably books on historical topics and books of poetry are also reviewed Organizing History Anna Maria Forssberg, 2011-01-01 The history of man is to a large extent the history of organisations For as long as there are written records to study people have co-operated to make use of scant resources in a more effective way This book focuses on the dynamic interaction of organisations norm systems and institutional changes The Annual Register , 1859
