Rugby: An Anthology Brian Levison, 2015-08-27 Inspiring and irreverent by turns Brian Levison's new anthology has drawn on rugby's wealth of excellent writing. Frank Keating P G Wodehouse Alec Waugh A A Thomson John Reason and Mick Imlah are among the distinguished names who have written movingly amusingly and entertainingly about the game they loved. Great players such as Brian O Driscoll Willie John McBride J P R Williams Chester Williams Colin Meads Gavin Hastings and Brian Moore give us a fascinating insider's view as does World Cup Final referee Derek Bevan who reveals what it is like to try to control thirty powerful and often volatile men in a highly competitive situation. But some of the best writing and the wittiest insights come from those who played their rugby at a much less exalted level. The origins of the game sometimes true sometimes fanciful are explored as are some of its rituals like the haka. There are amusing tales including that of the four Tibetan boys sent by the Dalai Lama to learn the game at Rugby School and an account of New

Zealand scrum half Chris Laidlaw's hostile reception at a village fête in Wales Along with barely believable stories about the game's hardest men including the French coach Jean le Sultan Sbardio who used to conduct training sessions wearing a sombrero and wielding a long whip and Red Conway who had his finger amputated rather than miss a game for South Africa One section Double Vision looks at the same incident from opposing viewpoints such as when the then relatively inexperienced Irish immortal Willie John McBride took a swing at the mighty All Black Colin Meads in a line out Another Giving it Everything shows how exceptional courage was not restricted to the rugby field but extended to the battle grounds of the First World War From the compiler of highly acclaimed All in a Day's Cricket this selection covers the game from virtually every angle and is sure to delight any rugby fan Karma Gone Bad Jenny Feldon, 2013-11-05 Made in America Outsourced to India At Home with Herself A charming yet honest memoir of one Upper West side housewife who finds herself saying good bye to Starbucks and all her notions of home when she and her husband are outsourced to Hyderabad Jenny Feldon imagined life in India as a glitzy yoga whirlwind Instead she found buffalo related traffic jams Jenny struggled to fight the depression bitterness and anger as her sense of self and her marriage began to unravel And it was all India's fault wasn't it Equally frustrating revealing and amusing this is the true story of an accidental housewife trapped in the third world Taste Buds and Molecules Francois Chartier, 2011-10-25 What's the secret relationship between the strawberry and the pineapple Between mint and Sauvignon Blanc Thyme and lamb Rosemary and Riesling In Taste Buds and Molecules sommelier Francois Chartier who has dedicated over twenty years of passionate research to the molecular relationships between wines and foods reveals the fascinating answers to these questions and more With an infectious enthusiasm Chartier presents a revolutionary way of looking at food and wine showing how to create perfect harmony between the two by pairing complementary and often surprising ingredients The pages of this richly illustrated practical guide are brimming with photos sketches recipes from great chefs and tips for creating everything from simple daily meals to tantalizing holiday feasts Wine amateurs and connoisseurs budding cooks and professional chefs and anyone who simply loves the pleasures of eating and drinking will be captivated and charmed by this journey into the hidden world of flavours
