Rode,1869 The Global Spread of Football from the 1860s to the 1880s Thomas Adam,2025-08-05 This book offers a study of how football became in the 1870s a global sport that was played by high school students on several continents It provides a horizontal perspective that focusses on the spread of football in the 1870s from its English cradle to Germany the United States and Argentina It will be the very first account of football that does not treat this sport in isolation but brings together the phenomenon of football with the conditions in nineteenth century high schools and the crisis of urban living and thereby explains why this sport was so willingly and quickly accepted into various societies and cultures around the globe Football was part of the social reform movement that emerged in the second half of the nineteenth century in response to the social ills of urban life Adults and children spent more and more time inside badly ventilated buildings Beginning in the 1870s social reformers and teachers called for the introduction into school curricula of physical exercises that could be conducted on the meadows and sport fields outside cities Publisher and Bookseller ,1890 Vols for 1871 76 1913 14 include an extra number The Christmas bookseller separately paged and not included in the consecutive numbering of the regular series

Rundell,1998 In recent times especially under the influence of postmodernism culture has often been construed as a critique of modernity This wide ranging and comprehensive collection of readings shows that such issues have always been at the centre of thought about the relationship between culture and civilization The readings are divided into three sections linking the civilization debate to political theory to the cultural debate and to the sociology and anthropology The substantial extracts included give students a rare chance to engage at length with classic texts to appreciate the nature of the battle between the Enlightenment and its critics which has shaped current thought Classical Readings on Culture and Civilisation presents essays from Immanuel Kant Adam Ferguson Thomas Jefferson Alexis de Tocqueville Friedrich von Schiller Friedrich Nietzsche Georg Simmel Thomas Mann Sigmund Freud Emile Durkheim Marcel Mauss Lucien Febvre Alfred Weber Robert E Park Norbert Elias The Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal ,1890 Official organ of the book trade of the United Kingdom Bookseller and the Stationery Trades' Journal ,1890 The Book Buyer ,1872 Book Buyer ,1868 British Humanities Index ,1967 The Collected Letters of

Katherine Mansfield Vincent O'Sullivan, Margaret Scott, 2008-06-05 The fifth and final volume of the Collected Letters of Katherine Mansfield covers the almost thirteen months during which her attention at first was firmly set on a last chance medical cure then finally on something very different if death came to seem inevitable how should one behave in the time that remained so one could truly say one lived Mansfield's biographers like her friends have wondered at the seemingly extraordinary decision to ditch conventional medicine for the bizarre choice of Gurdjieff's Institute for the Harmonious Development of Man at Fontainebleau These letters show the clarity of mind and will that led to that decision the courage and distress in making it and the gaiety even once it was made She went against what her education her husband and most of her friends would regard as reasonable as she opted to spend her last months with Russian migrants and a strange assortment of Gurdjieff disciples which she was not But Fontainebleau gave her the space and the incentive to shake free from the intellectualism that she thought the malaise of her time as she worked at kitchen chores took in the details of farm life tried to learn Russian and attempted to reach total honesty with herself If I were allowed one simple cry to God she wrote in one of her last letters that cry would be I want to be REAL Athenaeum and Literary Chronicle ,1857
