Marotti, 1993 Reading with a Difference is a collection of eighteen essays that examines how issues of gender race and cultural identity inform texts from the seventeenth century to the present Together the contributions document recent significant shifts occurring in the theoretical approach to the texts they study and illustrate how shifts in each of these categories affect how the others are viewed. The first section of this anthology explores the notion that identity particularly gender identity is a cultural construct The essays in the second section consider ways in which race and gender intersect with cultural identity and how encounters between different cultures challenge any identity constructed in isolation First published in the journal Criticism these essays offer no blueprint for reading Instead they encourage a rereading of canonical texts and a questioning of how these texts face matters of gender race and cultural identity how they respond to the differences and the incongruities within the cultures from which they arise and to which they speak BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved A Natural History of the Romance Novel Pamela Regis, 2013-08-31 The romance novel has the strange distinction of being the most popular but least respected of literary genres While it remains consistently dominant in bookstores and on best seller lists it is also widely dismissed by the critical community Scholars have alleged that romance novels help create subservient readers who are largely women by confining heroines to stories that ignore issues other than love and marriage Pamela Regis argues that such critical studies fail to take into consideration the personal choice of readers offer any true definition of the romance novel or discuss the nature and scope of the genre Presenting the counterclaim that the romance novel does not enslave women but on the contrary is about celebrating freedom and joy Regis offers a definition that provides critics with an expanded vocabulary for discussing a genre that is both classic and contemporary sexy and entertaining Taking the stance that the popular romance novel is a work of literature with a brilliant pedigree Regis asserts that it is also a very old stable form She traces the literary history of the romance novel from canonical works such as Richardson's Pamela through Austen's Pride and Prejudice Bront s Jane Eyre and E M Hull s The Sheik and then turns to more contemporary works such as the novels of Georgette Heyer Mary Stewart Janet Dailey Jayne Ann Krentz and Nora Roberts Unruly tongue, Our Players' Gallery W. straighten out your neck and eyes and apply the bow Then out would come a triumphant G that is provided your fingers had not already rubbed G s characteristically undershot lip so much as to erase away the letter s individuality In that case to be English Panorama 2 Teacher's Book Felicity O'Dell,1998-06-25 sure all your striving for G might result only in C after all English Panorama is an advanced English course for adults Each unit of the course introduces a different genre of written or The Dublin Review Nicholas Patrick Wiseman, 1885 Saturday Review ,1857 Theodora: Actress, Empress, Whore Stella Duffy, 2011-09-27 A bravura performance a witty moving sexy book that bursts with as much color and excitement as the city of Constantinople itself Financial Times Roman historian Procopius publicly praised Theodora of Constantinople for her piety while secretly detailing her salacious stage act and maligning her as ruthless and power hungry So who was this woman who rose from humble beginnings as a dancer to become the empress of Rome and a saint in the Orthodox Church Award winning novelist Stella Duffy vividly recreates the life and times of a woman who left her mark on one of the ancient world's most powerful empires Theodora Actress Empress Whore is a sexy captivating novel that resurrects an extraordinary little known figure from the dusty pages of history Baby and the Bank Robber Katy Berritt, It s 1920 and a horrible Bald Man just murdered six year old Julia Hanover's parents and tried to kill her too But she manages to escape and is adopted by the Reverend Zebediah Lumpkin and his wife Years pass and now it s 1933 and the Great Depression is in full swing People are poor it hasn t rained in Oklahoma in three years and Bonnie and Clyde are robbing banks all over the state And the little girl The Lumpkins have renamed her Baby Faye Lumpkin and she s pretending to be eleven years old to help them bilk people out of their money.
