The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religious Education in the Global South Yonah Hisbon Matemba, Bruce A.

Collet, 2022-02-10 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religious Education in the Global South presents new comparative perspectives on Religious Education RE across the Global South Including 23 chapters written by scholars from the Global North and South this is the first authoritative reference work on the subject The handbook is thematically organised into seven sections The first three sections deal with provision response to changes in contemporary society and decolonizing RE The next four sections explore young people and RE perspectives on teachers RE in higher education and finally challenges and opportunities for RE The term Global South is used here primarily to signify the deep economic divide with the Global North but the concept is also examined in historical geographical political social and cultural terms including the indelible influence of religion in all four broadly defined regions Exploring RE from local cross national as well as regional and sub regional perspectives the handbook examines RE from its diverse past present realities and envisioned future revealing not only tensions contestations injustices and inequalities of power but importantly how inclusive forms of RE can help solve these problems

Debates in Primary Education Virginia Bower, 2020-10-19 This powerful text encourages both pre service and established teachers as well as teacher educators to engage with contemporary debates in primary education Promoting a critical approach the chapters explore a wide range of key themes including the importance of values in primary education and the imperative for a curriculum which embraces the whole range of available subjects At the same time the chapters are underpinned by a belief that children should be at the heart of all the decisions we make and that primary education should inspire a love of learning for life The book aims to support practitioners to make informed judgements and feel confident to argue their point of view with deeper theoretical knowledge and understanding thus increasing teacher agency and confidence in responding to complex educational and social dilemmas such as literacy levels and rising mental health concerns Chapters encompass both the macro aspects of primary education and more specialised debates on key topics such as reading mathematics languages early years education and the use of technology With annotated further reading and reflective questions this key text is essential reading for all those wanting to develop a better understanding of the issues that shape their practice including student teachers at both undergraduate and postgraduate level practising teachers engaged in continuing professional development and teacher educators

Politics, Christianity and Society in Malawi Ross, Kenneth R., Mulwafu, Wapulumuka O., 2020-02-27 With the death of John McCracken in 2017 Malawi lost a pre eminent historian This book celebrates McCracken s contribution to the study of Malawi s history and seeks to build on his legacy Part of his genius was that he identified themes that hold the key to understanding the history of Malawi in its broader perspective The authors contributing to this volume address these themes assessing the progress of historiography and setting an agenda for the further advance of historical studies The book is a valuable resource for students researchers and all who are interested in gaining a deeper understanding of Malawi's past and present      Teaching Statistics in School Mathematics-Challenges for Teaching and Teacher Education Carmen Batanero,Gail Burrill,Chris Reading,2011-07-31 Teaching Statistics in School Mathematics Challenges for Teaching and Teacher Education results from the Joint ICMI IASE Study Teaching Statistics in School Mathematics Challenges for Teaching and Teacher Education Oriented to analyse the teaching of statistics in school and to recommend improvements in the training of mathematics teachers to encourage success in preparing statistically literate students the volume provides a picture of the current situation in both the teaching of school statistics and the pre service education of mathematics teachers A primary goal of Teaching Statistics in School Mathematics Challenges for Teaching and Teacher Education is to describe the essential elements of statistics teacher's professional knowledge and their learning experiences Moreover a research agenda that invites new research while building from current knowledge is developed Recommendations about strategies and materials available to train prospective teachers in university and in service teachers who have not been adequately prepared are also accessible to the reader

Student Teacher's Perceptions of the Pre-Service Mathematics Programme in a Primary Teachers' College in Zimbabwe Barnabas Muyengwa,2013 This case study investigated the perceptions of the third year student teachers of the first year pre service Mathematics programme at Seke Teachers College in Zimbabwe Student background characteristics of gender age teaching experience and Mathematics specialisation were the independent variables also investigated Data was collected from 278 third year students enrolled for the general Diploma in Education course using questionnaires with a five point Likert type 33 item rating scale and open ended items The data so collected were analysed both quantitatively and qualitatively The findings indicated that although the programme was able to provide students with a foundation in subject knowledge more could be done to improve on training in teaching methods and provision of resources From the variables investigated gender was found to have an effect on students perceptions of the programme but teaching experience was found to have no effect The possible relationship between the independent variables of age and Mathematics specialisation and the dependent variable of students perception of the programme was indicated in too few items to warrant a definite conclusion Implications for the improvement of the programme are that there is need for the college to revisit some aspects of the structure and organisation of the programme There is also need for further research involving all primary teachers colleges      Teaching Religious and Worldviews Education Creatively Sally Elton-Chalcraft,2024-07-30 Teaching Religious and Worldviews Education Creatively offers a fresh perspective on the Religious Education RE curriculum This second edition is crammed full of practical lesson ideas underpinned by cutting edge research authored by specialists in the field It helps teachers understand what constitutes an effective and creative Religion and Worldviews Education RWE curriculum and challenges teachers to view RWE as a transformatory subject that offers learners the tools to be discerning to work out their own beliefs and to answer puzzling questions This second edition of Teaching Religious and Worldviews
