Report ,1994 Evaluation of the Lovell Federal Health Care Center Merger Institute of Medicine,Board on the Health of Select Populations,Committee on Evaluation of the Lovell Federal Health Care Center Merger,2013-01-28 The 2010 opening of the Captain James A Lovell Federal Health Care Center FHCC created a joint entity between the Department of Defense DoD and the Department of Veterans Affairs VA that replaced two separate centers in North Chicago VA and DoD leaders envisioned a state of the art facility that would deliver health care to both DoD and VA beneficiaries from northern Illinois to southern Wisconsin providing service members and veterans seamless access to an expanded array of medical services Unprecedented for the military and the VA the Lovell FHCC would integrate clinical and administrative services under a single line of authority The DoD asked the IOM to evaluate whether the Lovell FHCC has improved health care access quality and cost for the DoD and the VA compared with operating separate facilities and to examine whether patients and health care providers are satisfied with joint VA DoD delivery of health care Evaluation of the Lovell Federal Health Care Center Merger Findings conclusions and Recommendations finds that initial implementation of the Lovell FHCC has provided important lessons about how to integrate VA and DoD health care services and has identified remaining obstacles that the departments could overcome to make such mergers more effective and less costly to implement The IOM recommends that the VA and the DoD develop a comprehensive evaluation plan to objectively judge its success or failure with measurable criteria that would provide essential knowledge for both the Lovell FHCC and future endeavors Evidence-Based

Practices in Mental Health Care American Psychiatric Association,2008-05-20 As the first attempt to synthesize the movement toward widespread implementation of evidence based mental health practices this groundbreaking collection articulates the basic tenets of evidence based medicine and shows how practices proven effective by clinical services research could improve the lives of many people Intended to stimulate much needed public discussion these remarkable contributions cover both general issues such as Implementing practices in routine mental health settings including strategies for disseminating evidence based practices to staff members Ensuring that efforts to implement such practices are informed by the knowledge and experience of administrators clinicians patients and advocates Integrating evidence based practices with the recovery model and focusing on guidelines and algorithms for pharmacologic treatment of people with severe mental illness Identifying the policy implications of the movement particularly in public sector settings and describing eight courses of action for addressing the gap between science and practice and specific practices such as Describing critical components of practices for which substantial evidence exists such as supported employment dual diagnosis services and assertive community treatment Developing an evidence base for particular populations such as children and adolescents and geriatric patients and for clinical subgroups such as patients with severe mental illness and posttraumatic stress disorder and implementing a range of practices for each population Debate in public forums is critical to explaining the benefits of evidence based care and allaying the fears of patients practitioners administrators policy makers and vested interest groups that evidence based care excludes them from the decision making process Patients need to know that their individual characteristics preferences and autonomy are highly valued and won t be discounted by rigid adherence to the particular treatments Practitioners need to know about the credibility of the evidence base and about new techniques and responsibilities and to understand that their favorite practices won t necessarily be excluded during initial attempts to implement evidence based practices Administrators and policy makers need to know about financing organizing implementing and sustaining new practices Finally vested interest groups need to know that the introduction of evidence based practices doesn t mean that what they do now is ineffective This unique and densely informative volume will be welcomed by mental health care professionals and by lawmakers planners administrators and others who are charged with the responsibility of providing effective care to vulnerable populations Congressional Record United States.

Congress,1969 Personality in Adulthood Robert R. McCrae,Paul T. Costa,2012-03-19 This influential work examines how enduring dispositions or traits affect the process of aging and shape each individual s life course From two well known authorities in the field the volume is grounded in a growing body of empirical evidence Critically reviewing different theories of personality and adult development the authors explain the logic behind the scientific assessment of personality present a comprehensive model of trait structure and examine patterns of trait stability and change after age 30 incorporating data from ongoing cross sectional and longitudinal studies Written in a clear jargon free style this book is an ideal text for advanced students and a timely reference for researchers and clinicians The Annual American Catalogue Cumulated 1900-1901 ,1902 The Annual American Catalogue ... ,1902 Monthly Catalog of United States Government Publications United States.
