Roadblocks on the Information Highway Jane Bachnik,2003-01-01 Although Japanese universities have relied on information technology to resolve numerous problems their high expectations are undermined by lags in implementing that technology This innovative edited volume argues that lags in IT implementation in Japanese education are created by contradictory and challenging responses of the social environment If this dialectic can be visualized as having hands the right avidly promotes IT while the left hand simultaneously blocks it The result of course is an impasse The issues central to this stalemate are significant because they point beyond the schools to a broader set of problem areas in Japanese society The contributors to Roadblocks on the Information Highway discover and discuss the contradictions inherent in Japanese society and culture as they are played out in the social contexts of IT service providers web masters and classroom teachers who implement IT They then show how these contradictions indicate broader structural problems that pervade the dynamic between Japanese education and the state and business sectors Ultimately in a reach that goes beyond Japan this book examines relationships between technology and society persuasively convincing readers that the modern age has created an inextricable link between the two

This Is Not a Copy Kaja Marczevska,2018-02-22 In This Is Not a Copy Kaja Marczevska identifies a characteristic copy paste tendency in contemporary culture a shift in attitude that allows reproduction and plagiarizing to become a norm in cultural production This inclination can be observed in literature and non literary forms of writing at an unprecedented level as experiments with text redefine the nature of creativity Responding to these transformations Marczevska argues that we must radically rethink our conceptions of artistic practice and proposes a move away from the familiar categories of copying and originality creativity and plagiarism in favour of the notion of iteration Developing the new concept of the Iterative Turn This Is Not a Copy identifies and theorizes the turn toward ubiquitous iteration as a condition of text based creative practices as they emerge in response to contemporary technologies Conceiving of writing as iterative invites us to address a set of new critical questions about contemporary culture Combining discussion of literature experimental and electronic writing mainstream and independent publishing with debates in 20th and 21st century art contemporary media culture transforming technologies and copyright laws This Is Not a Copy offers a timely and urgently needed argument introducing a unique new perspective on practices that permeate our contemporary culture

Design History Beyond the Canon Jennifer Kaufmann-Buhler, Victoria Rose Pass, Christopher Wilson, 2019-02-07 Design History Beyond the Canon subverts hierarchies of taste which have dominated traditional narratives of design history The book explores a diverse selection of objects spaces and media ranging from high design to mass produced and mass marketed objects as well as counter cultural and sub cultural material The authors research highlights the often marginalised role of gender and racial identity in the production and consumption of design the politics which underpins design practice and the role of designed objects as pathways of nostalgia and cultural memory While focused primarily on North American examples from the early 20th century onwards this collection also features essays examining European and Soviet design history as well as the influence of Asia and Africa on Western design practice The book is organised in three thematic sections Consumers Intermediaries and Designers The first section analyses a range of designed objects and spaces through the experiences and perspectives of users The second section considers intermediaries from both technology and cultural industries as well as the hidden labour within the design process itself The final section focuses on designers from multiple design disciplines including high fashion industrial design interior design graphic design and design history pedagogy The essays in all three sections utilise different research methods and a wide range of theoretical approaches including feminist theory critical race theory spatial theory material culture studies science and technology studies and art history Design History Beyond the Canon brings together the most recent research which stretches beyond the traditional canon and looks to interdisciplinary methodologies to better understand the practice and consumption of design

DIY Citizenship Matt Ratto, Megan Boler, 2014-02-07 How social media and DIY communities have enabled new forms of political participation that emphasize doing and making rather than passive consumption Today DIY do it yourself describes more than self taught carpentry Social media enables DIY citizens to organize and protest in new ways as in Egypt's Twitter revolution of 2011 and to repurpose corporate content or create new user generated content in order to offer political counternarratives This book examines the usefulness and limits of DIY citizenship exploring the diverse forms of political participation and critical making that have emerged in recent years The authors and artists in this collection describe DIY citizens whose activities range from activist fan blogging and video production to knitting and the creation of community gardens Contributors examine DIY activism describing new modes of civic engagement that include Harry Potter fan activism and the activities of the Yes Men They consider DIY making in learning culture hacking and the arts including do it yourself media production and collaborative documentary making They discuss DIY and design and how citizens can unlock the black box of technological infrastructures to engage and innovate open and participatory critical making And they explore DIY and media describing activists efforts to remake and reimagine media and the public sphere As these chapters make clear DIY is characterized by its emphasis on doing and making rather than passive consumption DIY citizens assume active roles as interventionists makers hackers modders and tinkerers in pursuit of new forms of engaged and participatory democracy Contributors Mike Ananny Chris Atton Alexandra Bal Megan Boler Catherine Burwell Red Chidgey Andrew Clement Negin Dahya Suzanne de Castell Carl DiSalvo Kevin Driscoll Christina Dunbar Hester Joseph Ferenbok Stephanie Fisher Miki Foster Stephen Gilbert Henry Jenkins Jennifer Jenson Yasmin B Kafai Ann Light Steve Mann Joel McKim Brenda McPhail Owen McSwiney Joshua McVeigh Schultz Graham Meikle Emily Rose Michaud Kate Milberry Michael Murphy Jason Nolan Kate Orton Johnson Kylie A Peppler David J Phillips Karen Pollock Matt Ratto Ian Reilly Rosa Reitsamer Mandy Rose Daniela K Rosner Yukari Seko Karen Louise Smith Lana Swartz Alex Tichine Jennette Weber Elke Zobl
