The Doing Of His Thing:

A Psychological Biography of Hiram "Hank" Williams Paul R. Nail, Ph.D.,2024-10-13 In the concluding volume of his psychological biography of Hank Williams author Paul R Nail Ph D puts readers inside the famous country singer s mind as Hank navigates the tormented lost highway of his final two years From the heady heights of his skyrocketing career at the beginning of 1951 to the depths of his tragic demise in the back seat of his chauffeur driven Cadillac in the early morning hours of New Year s Day 1953 this extensively researched and highly insightful final book of a three volume biography is a seismic addition to the study of Hank Williams s short life that ended at age 29 I highly recommend it to everyone fascinated by the Hillbilly Shakespeare Carl Eddy noted Hank Williams expert singer songwriter guitarist and author Air Force Engineering & Services Quarterly ,1975 Crime in the National Capital United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the District of Columbia,1969 The Emerging Self: A Developmental,.Self, And Object Relatio James F. Masterson, M.D.,2018-10-24 At last this much awaited volume sheds substantial light on one of the most difficult disorders to diagnose and treat the closet narcissistic disorders of the self The third of a series on the disorders of the self and the first written by Dr Masterson since 1985 the book fills a crucial niche in his work and in the field of personality disorders It describes not only the psychopathology and treatment of this disorder but more importantly demonstrates the key dynamic of the disorders of the self triad self activation leads to anxiety and depression which leads to defense This is the central dynamic of all the disorders of the self and its particular manifestations in the closet narcissistic personality disorder are described along with the therapeutic techniques required to identify and manage it The volume succeeds in clarifying a great deal of the clinical confusion surrounding the disorder and addresses such questions as What does the clinical picture look like What is the reason for the diagnostic confusion How does one resolve it What other disorders does this disorder mimic How do you differentiate it from the borderline and or schizoid disorders of the self What are some possible etiologic factors What precipitates a clinical syndrome What is the intrapsychic structure of this disorder and how does it compare with other disorders What is the central psychodynamic What is a mirroring interpretation of narcissistic vulnerability and why is it the intervention of choice What is projective identification and why is it so important to countertransference reactions to these patients The Emerging Self offers a clear down to earth hands on presentation of interest to all therapists students teachers and practitioners It will enable the therapist to identify what emotional issues are on center stage understand how to deal with it and also how to evaluate the results of his or her efforts Beyond that it will illustrate the variations in countertransference that occur as a result of projective identification Above all the volume will take its substantial place alongside Psychotherapy of the Borderline Adult and The Real Self as one of the three pillars of Dr Masterson s whole theoretical approach Oh, Didn't He Ramble Lee Collins,Mary Spriggs Collins,1989 Surveys the jazz trumpeter s career from the formative years of jazz in New Orleans through his club successes in Chicago after 1930 to his last European tour in
