Prebish, On-cho Ng, 2022-02-15 This book brings together an impressive group of scholars to critically engage with a wide ranging and broad perspective on the historical and contemporary phenomenon of Zen The structure of the work is organized to reflect the root and branches of Zen with the root referring to important episodes in Chan Zen history within the Asian context and the branches referring to more recent development in the West In collating what has transpired in the last several decades of Chan Zen scholarship the collection recognizes and honors the scholarly accomplishments and influences of Steven Heine arguably the most important Zen scholar in the past three decades As it looks back at the intellectual horizons that this towering figure in Zen Chan studies has pioneered and developed it seeks to build on the grounds that were broken and subsequently established by Heine thereby engendering new works within this enormously important religio cultural scholarly tradition This curated Festschrift is a tribute both retrospective and prospective acknowledging the foundational work that Heine has forged and generates research that is both complementary and highly original This academic ritual of assembling a liber amicorum is based on the presumption that sterling scholarship should be honored by conscientious scholarship In the festive spirit of a Festschrift this anthology consists of the resounding voices of Heine and his colleagues It is an indispensable collection for students and scholars interested in Japanese religion and Chinese culture and for those researching Zen Buddhist history and philosophy

Suh, 2015-01-29 How do contemporary films depict Buddhists and Buddhism What aspects of the Buddhist tradition are these films keeping from our view By repeatedly romanticizing the meditating monk what kinds of Buddhisms and Buddhists are missing in these films and why Silver Screen Buddha is the first book to explore the intersecting representations of Buddhism race and gender in contemporary films Sharon A Suh examines the cinematic encounter with Buddhism that has flourished in Asia and in the West in the past century from images of Shangri La in Frank Capra s 1937 Lost Horizon to Kim Ki Duk s 2003 international box office success Spring Summer Fall Winter and Spring The book helps readers see that representations of Buddhism in Asia and in the West are fraught with political gendered and racist undertones Silver Screen Buddha draws significant attention to ordinary lay Buddhism a form of the tradition given little play in popular film By uncovering the differences between a fictionalized commodified and exoticized Buddhism Silver Screen Buddha brings to light expressions of the tradition that highlight laity and women on the one hand and Asian and Asian Americans on the other Suh engages in a re visioning of Buddhism that expands the popular understanding of the tradition moving from the dominance of meditating monks to the everyday world of raced gendered and embodied lay Buddhists Religion and Film: The Basics Jeanette Reedy Solano, 2021-12-24 Religion and Film The Basics is an accessible and engaging introduction to the history diverse approaches and ideas associated within the study of religion and film Referencing films from around the world from the early 20th century to the present day this unique introduction includes

The Dark Interval Padraic Killeen, 2022-05-05 Invoking key concepts from the philosophical writings of Gilles Deleuze and Giorgio Agamben The Dark Interval examines a subtle but distinct iconography of passivity stillness and profound self affection that recurs across noir films of every era In doing so it identifies the emergence of a specific cinematic figure the intervallic noir protagonist exposed to the redemptive force of his or her own passion Significantly the book contextualises the iconography of film noir in relation to prior art historical visual traditions in particular earlier representations of melancholia and the saturnine locating noir against a much broader canvas than has been the norm Examining central noir films of the classic and modern era The Killers The Man Who Wasn't There as well as films at the peripheries of noir from Jacques Tourneur's Cat People to Wong Kar Wai's 2046 the book locates a series of iconographic gestures performance traditions and affective tonalities at once specific to noir and yet resonant with a deeper cultural and philosophical heritage It is a meditation that uniquely grapples with the look and the feel of noir and which dares to detect a unique quality of beatitude that runs through a certain strain of noir films In doing so it illuminates why film noir remains one of the most provocative and affecting visual milieus of our time

Enlightened Self-Interest Thomas J. Bussen, Henry Biggs, Tim Bono, Timothy Bono, 2024 In the face of entrenched politics in a polarized society ineffective economic policy in an unequal society and environmental inaction in a world that is burning many well intentioned people are left feeling helpless dispirited and most importantly apathetic before an immovable force They recognize the need for structural legislative and policy changes to address the legacy of slavery and deeply rooted inequality in the United States in particular but they still may yearn to do something as individuals to promote change in these areas What changes can individuals make in their personal lives that could foster a more civil equitable and sustainable society Recovering lawyer and Miami University business professor Dr Thomas J Bussen Washington University's Dr Timothy Bono and longtime academic practitioner Dr Henry Biggs address this question in a meticulously researched and empirically rooted book Together they present a sharp critique of America's ruthlessly self interested culture while offering a holistic understanding of enlightened self interest as an actionable alternative They first identify how our own taken for granted assumptions and societally sanctioned competitions for money power and fame promote selfishness personal alienation and widespread inequality Crucially however they then propose a simple specific and immediately actionable alternative acting with enlightened self interest in which self and other interests merge fluently With the knowledge that individual actions are not enough they ask the reader this question For all that we cannot do is it not time to ask what each of us can do Is it not time to do the hard work to move the proverbial needle even if it does little more than quiver Is it not time to know with a certainty that is rare in this complex and confusing world that to change any life is to change a universe With humility with patience and empathy for self and others and with a clear lens through which to view each of our worlds let us shake the foundations on which we stand

Your Journey to Peace Rosemary McCarthy,2016-10-21 Intertwined with Rosemary McCarthys personal journey of shifting from an angry frustrated person blaming others for her unhappiness to someone who now lives content with herself and in harmony with others Your Journey to Peace brings the esoteric to the practical and maps out how to become your Best Self and feel empowered in all areas of your life It also explains Why we are the way we are individually and collectively and how we got this way How we find peace within ourselves by making peace in our relationships and all situations That God does not allow for suffering We create it by upholding dualistic concepts of me and you and us and them that we embraced at our beginnings and before form The precursor to the Big Bang was the need for form to play out those dualistic concepts we chose at our beginnings all our issues stem from those original concepts based on ideas of separation rather than unity That understanding time makes the seven day creation model valid What are the extraterrestrials origins How we can reconcile the growing evidence of our past association with the ETs and our scriptures and beliefs Our need to embrace the Indigenous peoples connection to Gaia That we chose to be here at this time of the Shift to bring about our personal and Gaias Ascensions

The Mindful Classroom Tru Leverette,2022-02-10 The Mindful Classroom Constructive Conversations on Race Identity and Justice helps teachers and discussion facilitators practice and teach mindfulness and movement techniques that can deeply enhance conversations about race identity and social justice furthering social justice efforts at their most basic stage person to person from the face to face or online classroom to the community at large Mindfulness and movement practices can help us prepare for and engage in difficult conversations and the more conscious we become of our emotional mental and physical landscape the more we are able to engage proactively rather than reactively consciously rather than automatically We become able to act or not act rather than react in situations with others The topics of race and social justice are timely and they are triggers Productive engagement with these topics demands we remain mindful of how we may be triggered and how we may be triggering others it demands we pay attention to ourselves at a fundamental level and it demands that we grant such attention to others
