TITLE:

Eraser and Echo of Clock

What do you think the poem is going to be about?

POETRY-SAGE: Give it in your own words

POEM	Paraphrase	POEM	PARAPHASE
My eraser is pink And can shape to little across My math book. Which is a mess of numbers, All wrong, like When I smashed The back of my watch And the workings Fell out. The teacher frowned When she saw The watch, for poor heart Torn out. Now I'm working On my math. And I think, I think, I think I know, I look Up at the school clock With its hammerlike tick. Open the book, And perhaps The springs and gears Would jump And time stop. This test could stop, And my friends Cheese, pencils in their hands, Erases, too.		All would freeze, Including my teacher, And I could blow On the old marks Of my eraser. I fell out To the playground My right fingers And two thumbs Whipped around A dashed dot. The janitor is Down to his knees, The gardener To his knees of knee and garden, And the principal To his under-table. I sit home After home, And they stand, Facing down And smaller spots, Their eyes maybe moving Slower following The light of each corner Room. What a dream. Fading And look around The classroom Of exams and pencils, The clock racing My answers to the finish.
