international relationships forged broken and re established as the influence of the non aligned movement grew across the Cold War Lee elucidates how motion picture executives creative personnel policy makers and intellectuals in East and Southeast Asia aspired to industrialize their Hollywood inspired system in order to expand the market and raise the competitiveness of their cultural products They did this by forming the Federation of Motion Picture Producers in Asia co hosting the Asian Film Festival and co producing films Cinema and the Cultural Cold War demonstrates that the emergence of the first intensive postwar film producers network in Asia was in large part the offspring of Cold War cultural politics and the product of American hegemony Film festivals that took place in cities as diverse as Tokyo Singapore Hong Kong and Kuala Lumpur were annual showcases of cinematic talent as well as opportunities for the Central Intelligence Agency to establish and maintain cultural political and institutional linkages between the United States and Asia during the Cold War Cinema and the Cultural Cold War reanimates this almost forgotten history of cinema and the film industry in Asia
