Bedouins of the Empty Quarter Donald Powell Cole,2017-07-28 This volume describes Bedouins a tribal pastoral people in eastern Saudi Arabia This volume documents changes in their way of life beginning in the 1930s and continuing to the 1960s when this book originally appeared The Empty Quarter described here is a place inhabited by a people so thoroughly devoted to their pastoral pursuits that they are referred to as nomads of the nomads To the Al Murrah and other camel keeping pastoralists theirs is a rich and rewarding life For either to survive men and camels must live in close symbiosis The camels provide food fiber and transport man provides knowledge of available resources of which the most precious are water and the grasses that grow where rains have fallen In this work Donald Powell Cole shows us that this existence more complex and intricate There is the complex knowledge of the desert itself its varieties moods and resources Next there is the knowledge of the camels their needs capacities and the peculiarities of each animal These different kinds of knowledge must be brought together to fully use yet carefully conserve scarce resources As important is the structuring of social life The tribesmen must have a flexible social system that enables the individual household to operate alone when the environmental situation requires This necessitates a pattern of independence and equality The Al Murrah live according to ancient traditions but life is not unchanging In 1932 Saudi Arabia became a nation and intertribal raiding and warfare was brought to an end Cole highlights the adaptability of the Al Murrah as the desert became increasingly invaded by motor transport and oil rigs He sees their experience as prototypical man everywhere must attune his life to the requirements of his economy In a place like the Arabian Desert these adjustments are most insistent This work shows that even when these demands of the external world pervade behavior life can remain rich and rewarding

The Gate of the Burnt One Philip G Cohen, 2024-05-24 Based on an intriguing alternative history hypothesis this novel imagines a world where the Moors never left Southern Spain after their 800 year reign but instead expanded their empire across Europe This fascinating premise is explored through the chaotic lens of a bumbling film crew in the Sahara desert The director lost in a haze of Moroccan kif has embraced the local culture a little too enthusiastically With the scriptwriters gone and the leading actor in a perpetual sulk inside his Airstream the production is at a standstill Enter Tinctorio Indigolin a bitcoin billionaire on the run from a Shakespeare quoting Irish assassin In a bid to leverage a tax loss Indigolin acquires the film rights injecting a new lease of life into the project Mysteriously a captivating screenplay begins to appear on set page by page night after night Penned by an enigmatic writer the script proposes a world where the Moors didn't just resist expulsion in 1492 but went on to dominate Spain France and Italy creating an Islamic State of Europe As the screenplay unfolds it transforms the lives of everyone involved in the film The narrative weaves through a labyrinth of twists assassinations and narrow escapes employing the most unexpected methods only to culminate in the most uplifting conclusion you ll encounter this year The Immeasurable World William Atkins,2018-07-24 Winner of the Stanford Dolman Travel Book of the Year UK William Atkins is an erudite writer with a wonderful wit and gaze and this is a new and exciting beast of a travel book Joy Williams In the classic literary tradition of Bruce Chatwin and Geoff Dyer a rich and exquisitely written account of travels in eight deserts on five continents that evokes the timeless allure of these remote and forbidding places One third of the earth s surface is classified as desert Restless unhappy in love and intrigued by the Desert Fathers who forged Christian monasticism in the Egyptian desert William Atkins decided to travel in eight of the world s driest hottest places the Empty Quarter of Oman the Gobi Desert and Taklamakan deserts of northwest China the Great Victoria Desert of Australia the man made desert of the Aral Sea in Kazkahstan the Black Rock and Sonoran Deserts of the American Southwest and Egypt s Eastern Desert Each of his travel narratives effortlessly weaves aspects of natural history historical background and present day reportage into a compelling tapestry that reveals the human appeal of these often inhuman landscapes Near Death in the Desert Cecil Kuhne,2011-06-08 A travel anthology that gathers the best adventure stories from the world s most barren landscapes Ranging from 19th century explorers to modern day journalists these desert trekkers deal with everything from deserting men corrupt armed soldiers and Nigerian bush taxis to suspicious natives stubborn camels and debilitating sunburn These thirteen tales are more than suspenseful they also show how life can survive in the most punishing climates The night was heavy with foreboding The rain which had been spitting down on us during the late afternoon grew heavier It hurled into our faces borne by a wind that was now gusting between the dunes at full force It was the worst storm we had encountered and Ned was out in it alone Justin Marozzi South from Barbary Also featuring Robyn Davidson s Desert Places Robyn Davidson follows the Rubari people across the Thar as she tries to adapt to a difficult but fascinating way of life Michael Asher s Two Against the Sahara Newlyweds embark upon a nine month 4500 mile journey across the world s largest desert traveling from Morocco to Sudan Bayle St John s Adventure in the Libyan Desert In 1847 a team of four trek deep into Libya in search of an oasis But what they find is even more astounding
