The Family On Paradise Pier:

The Family on Paradise Pier Dermot Bolger, 2006 A fictionalised portrait of a fascinating woman and an intimate view of a century of Irish history

The Family on Paradise Pier Dermot Bolger, 2012-05-31 A stunning historical saga set in the early decades of the twentieth century which follows the lives and loves of one extraordinary family

No Country for Old Men Paddy Lyons, 2008 The concepts of Ireland and Irishness are in constant flux in the wake of an ever increasing reappraisal of the notion of cultural and national specificity in a world assailed from all angles by the forces of globalisation and uniformity Reimagining Ireland interrogates Ireland's past and present and suggests possibilities for the future by looking at Ireland's literature culture and history and subjecting them to the most up to date critical appraisals associated with sociology literary theory historiography political science and theology

The Disappointed Bridge Richard Pine, 2014-06-02 This original study is the first major critical appraisal of Ireland's post colonial experience in relation to that of other emergent nations The parallels between Ireland India Latin America Africa and Europe establish bridges in literary and musical contexts which offer a unique insight into independence and freedom and the ways in which they are articulated by emergent nations They explore the master servant relationship the functions of narrative and the concepts of nationalism map making exile schizophrenia hybridity magical realism and disillusion The author offers many incisive answers to the question What happens to an emerging nation after it has emerged
