

The background of the entire image is a composite of cosmic and terrestrial elements. At the top, a bright yellow and white spiral galaxy is visible against a dark, star-filled space. Below the galaxy, several bright purple and white lightning bolts streak across the frame. At the bottom, the blue and white horizon of the Earth is visible, showing clouds and the ocean. The overall theme is the intersection of science and faith.

The First Four Days:

Archbold's Practice of the Court of Queen's Bench, in Personal Actions and Ejectment, Including the Practice of the Courts of Common Pleas and Exchequer John Frederick Archbold, Thomas Chitty, 1840 Four Days in Hitler's Germany Robert Teigrob, 2019-05-09 In 1937 Canadian Prime Minister Mackenzie King travelled to Nazi Germany in an attempt to prevent a war that to many observers seemed inevitable The men King communed with in Berlin including Adolf Hitler assured him of the Nazi regime's peaceful intentions and King not only found their pledges sincere but even hoped for personal friendships with many of the regime's top officials Four Days in Hitler's Germany is a clearly written and engaging story that reveals why King believed that the greatest threat to peace would come from those individuals who intended to thwart the Nazi agenda which as King saw it was concerned primarily with justifiable German territorial and diplomatic readjustments Mackenzie King was certainly not alone in misreading the omens in the 1930s but it would be difficult to find a democratic leader who missed the mark by a wider margin This book seeks to explain the sources and outcomes of King's misperceptions and diplomatic failures and follows him as he returns to Germany to tour the appalling aftermath of the very war he had tried to prevent *A Synopsis of Practice; or, General view of the time when the proceedings in an action should be carried on in the Courts of King's Bench and Common Pleas.
