The Forbidden Modern Civilization And Veiling Paperback:

The Forbidden Modern Nilüfer Göle, 1996 A prominent Turkish sociologist examines the veiling of young university women and the cultural cleavages between the Islamic and Western worlds Corporate Islam Patricia Sloane-White, 2017-03-30 Compelling and original this book offers a unique insight into the modern Islamic corporation revealing how power relationships individual identities gender roles and practices and often massive financial resources are mobilized on behalf of Islam Focusing on Muslims in Malaysia Patricia Sloane White argues that sharia principles in the region's Islamic economy produce a version of Islam that is increasingly conservative financially and fiscally powerful and committed to social control over Muslim and non Muslim public and private lives Packed with fascinating details the book is essential reading for anyone with an interest in Islamic politics and culture in modern life Muslim Fashion Reina Lewis, 2015-10-15 In the shops of London's Oxford Street girls wear patterned scarves over their hair as they cluster around makeup counters Alongside them hip twenty somethings style their head wraps in high black topknots to match their black boot cut trousers Participating in the world of popular mainstream fashion often thought to be the domain of the West these young Muslim women are part of an emergent cross faith transnational youth subculture of modest fashion In treating hijab and other forms of modest clothing as fashion Reina Lewis counters the overuse of images of veiled women as evidence in the prevalent suggestion that Muslims and Islam are incompatible with Western modernity Muslim Fashion contextualizes modest wardrobe styling within Islamic and global consumer cultures interviewing key players including designers bloggers shoppers store clerks and shop owners Focusing on Britain North America and Turkey Lewis provides insights into the ways young Muslim women use multiple fashion systems to negotiate religion identity and ethnicity Chinese Religiosities Mayfair Mei-hui Yang, 2008-11-04 The long twentieth century in China and Taiwan has seen both a dramatic process of state driven secularization and modernization and a vigorous revival of contemporary religious life Chinese Religiosities explores the often vexed relationship between the modern Chinese state and religious practice The essays in this comprehensive multidisciplinary collection cover a wide range of traditions including Buddhism Daoism Islam Confucianism Protestantism Falungong popular religion and redemptive societies Contributors Jos Cabez n Prasenjit Duara Ryan Dunch Dru C Gladney Vincent Goossaert Ji Zhe Ya pei Kuo Richard Madsen Rebecca Nedostup David Palmer Benjamin Penny Mayfair Mei hui Yang

The New Orientalists Ian Almond, 2007-07-20 The west's Orientalism its construction of an Arab or Islamic Other has been exposed and examined under the critical theory microscope and thoroughly expelled it seems from academic thought At the same time postmodern thinkers from Nietzsche onwards have employed the motifs and symbols of the Islamic Orient within an ongoing critique of western modernity an appropriation which this hugely controversial book argues runs every risk of becoming a new and more insidious Orientalist strain Ian Almond sensitively yet rigorously examines the work of Nietzsche Jacques Derrida Michel Foucault Jean Baudrillard Julia Kristeva and Slavoj Zizek as well as that of postmodern writers Jorge Luis Borges Salman Rushdie and Orhan Pamuk In doing so he exposes the implications of this use of Islam for both the postmodern project and for Islam itself Taking apart the assumptions omissions and contradictions inherent in these thinkers approaches to Islam and to the Arab world and drawing on the work of prominent Muslim thinkers including Ziauddin Sardar Aziz Al Azmeh and Bobby S Sayyid The New Orientalists highlights the difficulty of ever speaking truly about the Other In light of the current Western climate of fear and hysteria surrounding the Islamic world this groundbreaking project could hardly be more timely

The Forbidden Modern Nilüfer Göle,1996 A prominent Turkish sociologist examines the veiling of young university women and the cultural cleavages between the Islamic and Western worlds

Secularism and Religion-Making Markus Dressler,Arvind Mandair,2011-10-03 This book conceives of religion making broadly as the multiple ways in which social and cultural phenomena are configured and reconfigured within the matrix of a world religion discourse that is historically and semantically rooted in particular Western and predominantly Christian experiences knowledges and institutions It investigates how religion is universalized and certain ideas social formations and practices rendered religious are thus integrated in and subordinated to very particular mostly liberal secular assumptions about the relationship between history politics and religion The individual contributions written by a new generation of scholars with decisively interdisciplinary approaches examine the processes of translation and globalization of historically specific concepts and practices of religion and its dialectical counterpart the secular into new contexts This volume contributes to the relatively new field of thought that aspires to unravel the thoroughly intertwined relationships between religion and secularism as modern concepts

Political Islam, World Politics and Europe Bassam Tibi,2014-07-11 The new and updated edition of Political Islam World Politics and Europe focusses on the shift within political Islam in light of 9 11 and the events of the Arab Spring from a jihadist struggle to institutional Islamism Refuting what has often been referred to by commentators as the moderation of Islamism the second edition of this book introduces the concept of institutional Islamism a process which Tibi argues was accelerated in the aftermath of the Arab Spring Both jihadist and institutional Islamism pursue the same goal of an Islamist state but disagree fundamentally on the strategy for achieving it Whilst jihadism is committed to the idea of a violent Islamic world revolution institutional Islamism embraces political institutions as a means to an end Turning to the events of the Arab Spring in Tunisia Libya and Egypt this book attempts to determine whether an abandonment of violence is enough to underpin a shift to genuine democracy Analysing the fall of Morsi in particular Tibi questions what lessons can be learnt from his presidency and argues that this event will not change the overall trend of development from jihadism to institutional Islamism A timely addition to existing literature this book will be of interest to students and scholars studying Middle Eastern and European Politics Political Islam and International Relations

Ethnographic Discourses on Women and Islam in Turkey Petek Onur,2024-05-09 This book provides a meta reading of how ethnographic discourses on women and Islam in Turkey have changed since their emergence in 1983 It analyses the published ethnographic works in three discursive periods and shows that paradigm shifts in social sciences processes of neo liberal globalization and globalization of Islamism as well as political social cultural and economic transformations at the local level shape these periods As an exceptional example of modernization in the Middle East and the post imperial states in South East Europe Turkey has been experiencing tensions between Islamic beliefs and practices and Westernization and secularization processes Countless aspects of Muslim women s lives appear as symbols and indicators in this society like in many other Muslim majority societies and to scholars of gender and women s studies in discussing the faith based patriarchy Thus this book exhibits the necessity of developing a critical perspective on ethnographic representations of Muslim women in Turkey

Democracy, Identity and Foreign Policy in Turkey F. Keyman,S. Gumüşçu,Sebnem Gumuscu,2015-12-04

Through critical analysis of Turkey s transformation under the AKP this book explores the relationship between domestic transformations and global regional dynamics It also discusses the relationship between the Turkish transformation and the Arab uprisings and the implications of the Turkish case for regime transitions in the Arab world

Religious Diversity in Post-Secular Societies Zakaria Sajir, Masculinities and the Law Frank Rudy Cooper,Ann C. McGinley,2012-08-27

According to masculinities theory masculinity is not a biological imperative but a social construction Men engage in a constant struggle with other men to prove their masculinity Masculinities and the Law develops a multidimensional approach It sees categories of identity including various forms of raced classed and sex oriented masculinities as operating simultaneously and creating different effects in different contexts By applying multidimensional masculinities theory to law this cutting edge collection both expands the field of masculinities and develops new thinking about important issues in feminist and critical race theories The topics covered include how norms of masculinity influence the behavior of policemen firefighters and international soldiers on television and in the real world employment discrimination against masculine cocktail waitresses and all transgendered employees the legal treatment of fathers in the U S and the ways unauthorized migrant fathers use the dangers of border crossing to boost their masculine esteem how Title IX fails to curtail the masculinity of sport the racist assumptions behind the prison rape debate the surprising roots of homophobia in Jamaican dancehall music and the contradictions of the legal debate over women veiling in Turkey Ultimately the book argues that multidimensional masculinities theory can change how law is interpreted and applied

Un-Veiling Dichotomies Giorgia Baldi,2021-09-27 This book analyzes the implication of secular liberal values in Western and human rights law and its impact on Muslim women It offers an innovative reading of the tension between the religious and secular spheres The author does not view the two as binary opposites Rather she believes they are twin categories that define specific forms of lives as well as a specific notion of womanhood This divergence from the usual dichotomy opens the doors for a reinterpretation of secularism in contemporary Europe This method also helps readers to view the study of religion vs secularism in a new light It allows for a better understanding of the challenges that contemporary Europe now faces regarding the accommodation of different religious identities For instance one entire section of the book concerns the practice of veiling and explores the contentious headscarf debate It features case studies from Germany France and the UK In addition the analysis combines a wide range of disciplines and employs an integrated comparative and inter disciplinary approach The author successfully brings together arguments from different fields with a comparative legal and political analysis of Western and Islamic law and politics This innovative study appeals to students and researchers while offering an important contribution to the debate over the role of religion in contemporary secular Europe and its impact on women s rights and gender equality The Politics of Secularism Murat Akan,2017-09-05 Discussions of modernity or alternative and multiple modernities often hinge on the question of secularism especially how it travels outside its original European context Too often attempts to answer this question either imagine a universal model derived from the history of Western Europe which neglects the experience of much of the world or emphasize a local non European context that limits the potential for comparison In The Politics of Secularism Murat Akan reframes the question of secularism exploring its presence both outside and inside Europe and offering a rich empirical account of how it moves across borders and through time Akan uses France and Turkey to analyze political actors comparative discussions of secularism struggles for power and historical contextual constraints at potential moments of institutional change France and Turkey are critical sites of secularism France exemplifies European political modernity and Turkey has long been the model of secularism in a Muslim majority country Akan analyzes prominent debates in both countries on topics such as the visibility of the headscarf and other religious symbols religion courses in the public school curriculum and state salaries for clerics and imams Akan lays out the institutional struggles between three distinct political currents anti clericalism liberalism and what he terms state civil religionism detailing the nuances of how political movements articulate the boundary between the secular and the religious Disputing the prevalent idea that diversity is a new challenge to secularism and focusing on comparison itself as part of the politics of secularism this book makes a major contribution to understanding secular politics and its limits Islam, Culture and Women in Asia Firdous Azim,2013-10-18 An examination of the place of religion especially Islam in political and cultural life took on a special urgency after the events of 9 11 The essays in this volume concentrate on the way that Islam impacts on the everyday lives of people who reside in societies where Islam plays a large part The relationship between Islam and women has always been seen as problematic and by highlighting women s negotiations with this religion this volume seeks to understand the many and various strategies and connections that are made and their political and cultural ramifications By keeping an Asian focus the authors also seek to understand the wide panorama that Islamic societies inhabit and the manifold political and cultural expressions that ensue from this The effort is not only to break the image of a monolithic structure and set of beliefs but also to highlight on the ground negotiations and the ways that women in particular find spaces within Islamic structures and discourses This book was originally published as a special issue of Inter Asia Cultural Studies Turkey and the European Union Lucia Najšlová, 2021-01-28 Turkey's EU accession talks which began in 2005 were intended to strengthen Turkey's democracy and the EU's ability to embrace difference. Instead we have seen repeated questioning of Turkey's Europeaness and mutual exploitation of the other's weaknesses. Offering a unique analysis of conversations in and about Turkey and the EU, Lucia Najlov adopts an interdisciplinary ethnographic lens, taking the reader through misunderstandings in the diplomatic framework and into everyday interactions between various protagonists of the relationship. Questions of belonging and recognition underpin the analysis and connect various research sites, including the 2016 refugee deal and the status of Turkish Cypriots. Najlov delves into the temporal dimensions of this dynamic, such as questions surrounding Turkish modernity and nation building, and asks whether there is such a thing as good timing for democracy and what would happen if the diplomatic framework of Turkey-EU relations started moving faster.

The Crisis of Citizenship in the Arab World, 2017-04-24 The Crisis of Citizenship in the Arab World argues that the present crisis of the Arab world has its origins in the historical legal and political development of state-citizen relations since the beginning of modern history in the Middle East and North Africa. The anthology covers three main topics: Part I focuses on the crisis of the social pact in different Arab countries as it became manifest during the Arab Uprisings; Part II concentrates on concepts of citizenship in Islamic doctrine, Islamic movements, Muslim Brotherhood, and Salafism; secular political movements and Arab thinkers. Part III looks into the practices that support the claims to equal rights as well as the factors that have obstructed full citizen rights, such as patronage and clientelism. Contributors are Ida Almestad, Claire Beaugrand, Assia Boutaleb, Michaelle Browsers, Nils Butenschön, Anthony Gorman, Raymond Hinnebusch, Engin F. Isin, Rania Maktabi, Roel Meijer, Emin Poljarević, Ola Rifai, James Sater, Rachel Scott, Jakob Skovgaard Petersen, Robert Springborg, Stig Stenslie, Morten Valbjørn, Knut S. Vikør, and Sami Zemni.

Toward New Democratic Imaginaries - Istanbul Seminars on Islam, Culture and Politics, Seyla Benhabib, Volker Kaul, 2016-09-23 This volume combines rigorous empirical and theoretical analyses with political engagement to look beyond reductive short hands that ignore the historical evolution and varieties of Islamic doctrine and that deny the complexities of Muslim societies' encounters with modernity itself. Are Islam and democracy compatible? Can we shed the language of Islam vs. the West for new political imaginaries? The authors analyze struggles over political legitimacy since the Arab Spring and the rise of Al Qaeda and ISIS in their historical and political complexity across the MENA (Middle East and North Africa) region. Distinguishing multiculturalism from interculturalism and understanding multiple modernities, philosophers in the volume tease out the complexities of civilizational encounters. The volume also shows how the Paris massacres or the Danish caricature controversy do not remain confined to Europe but influence struggles and confrontations within Muslim societies. Gender and Islam are addressed from a comparative perspective, bringing into conversation not only the experience of different Muslim countries with Islamic law but also by analysing Jewish family law.
