The Friedkin Connection William Friedkin, 2024-05-21 An acclaimed memoir from an American cinema maverick and Academy Award winning director of such legendary films as The French Connection and The Exorcist The Friedkin Connection takes readers from the streets of Chicago to the suites of Hollywood and from the sixties to today with autobiographical storytelling as fast paced and intense as any of the auteur's films Friedkin's success story has the makings of classic American film He was born in Chicago the son of Russian immigrants Immediately after high school he found work in the mailroom of a local television station and patiently worked his way into the directing booth during the heyday of live TV An award winning documentary brought him attention as a talented new filmmaker and an advocate for justice and it caught the eye of producer David L Wolper who brought Friedkin to Los Angeles There he moved from television to film displaying a versatile stylistic range In 1971 The French Connection was released and won five Academy Awards including Best Picture and Best Director and two years later The Exorcist received ten Oscar nominations and catapulted Friedkin's career to stardom Penned by the director himself The Friedkin Connection takes readers on a journey through the numerous chance encounters and unplanned occurrences that led a young man from a poor urban neighborhood to success in one of the most competitive industries and art forms in the world In this fascinating and candid story he has much to say about the world of moviemaking and his place within it Friedkin's against all odds success story is compelling reading from the start LA Weekly

Documentary and the Production of Public History, 1958-1977 Joshua Glick, 2018-01-19 Los Angeles Documentary and the Production of Public History 1958-1977 explores how documentarians working between the election of John F Kennedy and the Bicentennial created conflicting visions of the recent and more distant American past Drawing on a wide range of primary documents Joshua Glick analyzes the films of Hollywood documentarians such as David Wolper and Mel Stuart along with lesser known independents and activists such as Kent Mackenzie Lynne Littman and Jess Salvador Treviño While the former group reinvigorated a Cold War cultural liberalism the latter group advocated for social justice in a city plagued by severe class stratification and racial segregation Glick examines how mainstream and alternative filmmakers turned to the

Cimino Charles Elton, 2022-03-29 The revelatory The New Yorker first biography of critically acclaimed then critically derided filmmaker Michael Cimino and a reevaluation of the infamous film that destroyed his career The director Michael Cimino 1939 2016 is famous for two films the intense powerful and enduring Vietnam movie The Deer Hunter which won Best Picture at the Academy Awards in 1979 and also won Cimino Best Director and Heaven s Gate the most notorious bomb of all time Originally budgeted at 11 million Cimino s sprawling western went off the rails in Montana The picture grew longer and longer and the budget ballooned to over 40 million When it was finally released Heaven s Gate failed so completely with reviewers and at the box office that it put legendary studio United Artists out of business and marked the end of Hollywood s auteur era Or so the conventional wisdom goes Noted television producer and author Charles Elton delves deeply into the making and aftermath of the movie and presents a surprisingly different view to that of Steven Bach one of the executives responsible for Heaven s Gate who wrote a scathing book about the film and solidified the widely held view that Cimino wounded the movie industry beyond repair Elton s Cimino is a richly detailed biography that offers a revisionist history of a lightning rod filmmaker Based on extensive interviews with Cimino s peers and collaborators and enemies and friends most of whom have never spoken before it unravels the enigmas and falsehoods many perpetrated by the director himself which surround his life and sheds new light on his extraordinary career This is a story of the making of art the business of Hollywood and the costs of ambition both financial and personal late 1960s the collapse of the classic Hollywood studio system led in part and for less than a decade to a production trend heavily influenced by the international art cinema Reflecting a new self consciousness in the US about the national film patrimony this period is known as the Hollywood Renaissance However critical study of the period is generally associated with its so called principal auteurs slighting a number of established and emerging directors who were responsible for many of the era s most innovative and artistically successful releases With contributions from leading film scholars this book provides a revisionist account of this creative resurgence by discussing and memorializing twenty four directors of note who have not yet been given a proper place in the larger history of the period Including filmmakers such as Hal Ashby John Frankenheimer Mike Nichols and Joan Micklin Silver this more expansive approach to the auteurism of the late 1960s and 1970s seems not only appropriate but pressing a necessary element of the re evaluation of Hollywood with which cinema studies has been preoccupied under the challenges posed by the emergence and flourishing of new media Re-reading first published in 1993 The Monstrous Feminine married psychoanalytic thinking with film analysis in radically new ways to provide an invaluable corrective to conventional approaches to the study of women in horror films with their narrow emphasis on woman's victimhood This volume which will mark 25 years since the publication of The Monstrous Feminine brings together essays by international scholars working across a variety of disciplines who take up Creed's ideas in new ways and fresh contexts or more broadly explore possible futures for feminist and or psychoanalytically informed art history and film theory
