

A pictorial interlude

For Chapter 4 Alan Moore, with the help of Steve (no relation) Moore and Jaime Delano, made a daylong tour of London, taking copious photographs. On a separate occasion he photographed Bournemouth. On these pages we're showing some of these along with the black and white images I made from them. It was interesting to see the reverse of this situation when the FROM HELL movie based some scenes quite clearly on panels from the book and we present a couple of those also. There are also the colour covers that were made for the original presentation of From Hell in parts, information on old pen-nibs and a few photos of Moore and Campbell from over the years.
