The Moon And Sixpence:

The Moon and Sixpence W. Somerset Maugham, 2020-05-05 A middle aged stockbroker leaves his family to become an artist in this novel inspired by the life of Paul Gauguin from a notable and original writer The New York Times From the author of The Razor's Edge and Of Human Bondage The Moon and Sixpence tells the story of Charles Strickland who suddenly deserts his wife and children in order to devote his life to painting Unpleasant in manner yet strangely charismatic he makes his way to Paris Marseilles and finally Tahiti producing works of genius that few in his lifetime appreciate while those he left behind speculate about what drove him to abandon them so abruptly A notable and original writer Mr Maugham digresses whenever he happens to feel like it and his digressions never cause him to lose the reader's attention but instead rather strengthen his hold on it His comments are sometimes brilliant always shrewd often disconcertingly so He has a way of getting beneath the surface The New York Times

The Moon and Sixpence William Somerset Maugham, 2022-11-13 In The Moon and Sixpence William Somerset Maugham weaves a captivating narrative inspired by the life of the artist Paul Gauguin This novel employs a rich impressionistic style that mirrors the vividness of Gauguin's own works inviting the reader into a world where the boundaries between reality and art blur Maugham's exploration of the conflict between societal expectations and creative ambition is intricately developed through the protagonist Charles Strickland whose obsessive pursuit of artistic expression leads him to abandon his mundane life in London for the enchanting yet challenging landscapes of Tahiti The novel not only serves as a profound character study but also critiques the very essence of civilization in contrast to the primal instincts of desire and creativity Maugham's own travels and experiences as an expatriate deeply influenced his depiction of artistic fervor and the inherent struggle for self realization His background as a playwright and novelist coupled with his encounters with artists and bohemians provides a nuanced understanding of the fine line between genius and madness This rich tapestry of personal insight and observation is expertly woven into the fabric of the narrative making it a compelling read The Moon and Sixpence is a must read for anyone interested in the intricate interplay between art and life as well as those who ponder the sacrifices made in the pursuit of passion Maugham eloquently captures the complexity of human nature making this novel a timeless exploration of the price of artistic integrity and the relentless quest for authenticity

Somerset Maugham, 2015-01-27 The Moon and Sixpence By W Somerset Maugham The Moon and Sixpence is a novel by W Somerset Maugham told in episodic form by a first person narrator in a series of glimpses into the mind and soul of the central character Charles Strickland a middle aged English stockbroker who abandons his wife and children abruptly to pursue his desire to become an artist The story is said to be loosely based on the life of the painter Paul Gauguin The novel is written largely from the point of view of the narrator who is first introduced to Strickland through the latter's wife Strickland strikes him the narrator as unremarkable. Certain chapters entirely comprise stories or narrations of others which the narrator recalls from memory selectively editing or elaborating on certain aspects of dialogue particularly Strickland's as Strickland is said by the narrator to be limited in his use of verbiage and tended to use gestures in his expression. Strickland is a well-off middle class stockbroker in London sometime in late 19th or early 20th century. Early in the novel he leaves his wife and children and goes to Paris. He lives a destitute but defiantly content life there as an artist specifically a painter lodging in run-down hotels and falling prey to both illness and hunger. Strickland in his drive to express through his art what appears to continually possess and compel him on the inside cares nothing for physical discomfort and is indifferent to his surroundings. He is generously supported while in Paris by a commercially successful but hackneyed Dutch painter Dirk Stroeve, a friend of the narrator's who immediately recognises Strickland's genius. After helping Strickland recover from a life-threatening condition, Stroeve is repaid by having his wife Blanche abandon him for Strickland. Strickland later discards the wife; all he really sought from Blanche was a model to paint, not serious companionship, and it is hinted in the novel's dialogue that he indicated this to her and she took the risk anyway. Blanche then commits suicide, yet another human casualty in Strickland's single-minded pursuit of art and beauty, the first ones being his own established life and those of his wife and children.
