

The Skill of Cooking

1 Have you ever wished you could make dinner just the way you like it? It may seem like cooking is something only certain people know how to do, like a magic trick. But cooking is not magic. It is a skill that everyone—even children—can learn to enjoy.

2 Health experts encourage people to cook. A study done at a university shows that people are healthier when they eat food made at home. After all, if you add all the ingredients yourself, you always know what you are eating. (Ingredients are the foods you put together to make a dish.)

Careful in the Kitchen

3 Some people think that the kitchen is not a good place for children. They want to keep children safe, and they worry that children will get hurt. Many of the injuries that happen in homes take place in kitchens. After all, there are plenty of sharp and hot things there!

4 But teaching children to cook may actually make them safer. As you prepare food, you find out what can be dangerous. You learn how to handle kitchen tools correctly. You find out what to touch and how to touch it. As you learn to prepare food, you also learn how to keep yourself safe in the kitchen.

So Much to Learn

5 Parents may say that there are too few ways to teach children to cook. That
