Margy Whalley

Start Right Report 1994:

Setting the scene Sally Featherstone,2013-07-18 This book explores the importance of the environment in the Early Years and its effect on learning and emotional development It provides examples of excellent settings for learning as well as lots of ideas for organisation planning displays and making changes It will inspire practitioners with its full colour photos and practical easy to follow activities

Involving Parents in their Children's Learning Margy Whalley,2007-07-16 A unique guide for students practitioners parents and administrators of young children who want to understand specific strategies to maximise parent involvement and collaboration Education Libraries This is an excellent book that draws extensively on the work of a children s centre that has been running for over 25 years SENCO Update Involving Parents in their Children s Learning is the story of the pioneering work of the Pen Green Centre for children and families Showing how early years practitioners can collaborate effectively with parents the book includes case studies of parents and children who have attended the centre studies which chart developments in learning for both children and parents The book will inspire early years practitioners and offer them practical advice on ways of developing effective work with parents Drawing on their work at the renowned Pen Green Centre the authors show how to o support parents as their child s first educator o provide practical and psychological support to parents o involve fathers and male carers o share important child development concepts o support and extend children s learning o reach out to hard to reach parents This New Edition follows up on the stories of people featured in the first edition showing how they have progressed over the last few years It also includes new chapters covering the headteacher s role in developing parental involvement programmes how the Pen Green model has been applied in primary schools and the use of parental diaries The book is essential reading for students on early years courses BA FdA B Ed as well as practising early years professionals and senior management teams in primary schools

Early Education Transformed Lesley Abbott,Dr Helen Moylett,Helen Moylett,2002-11 Early Education Reformed provides a strong foundation of knowledge about aspects of early years education by summarising the current status and outlining paths of development for now and the future Specially commissioned papers by some of the most respected academics currently working in the field of early childhood and education means that this book will be essential reading for early years teachers and staff social and child care workers researchers and policy makers

Early Childhood Education and Care Margaret M Clark,Tim Waller,2007-05-14 A much needed book that uniquely brings together policy and practice in early childhood education and care across the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland It offers a wealth of information and useful websites and addresses so that importantly readers can keep abreast of the rapidly changing external environment in these countries An essential read for those wishing to understand the background to policy and practice in early childhood education and care Linda Miller The Open University This book is long overdue it provides effective cameos of developments in each country highlighting key legislation the underlying philosophy the formation of policies and thier implementation in state voluntary and private provision The International Journal of Early Childhood This unique resource will be invaluable in helping students and others trying to understand the context of current early years provision The case studies bring the book to life and ground it in the stories of real children and their families They highlight how the similarities and differences in support for children and their families are more dependent on where they live than what they need Lesley Staggs Early childhood education and care policy has an impact on the daily lives of early years practitioners and the families and children they work with and practising and trainee early childhood professionals need to have an understanding of current policy as well as the contexts for policy making and implementation Currently the majority of textbooks for early years education and early childhood students in the UK focus on the situation in England As a result readers may have a skewed perspective on policy and practice and not be aware of the varying and different contexts in Northern Ireland Scotland and Wales Also those working in settings not in England have to work hard to apply texts to their own contexts In contrast this book gives the reader easy access to information on the policies and practices in ECEC across each of the countries in the UK and the Republic of Ireland Each chapter covers o background information o policy and practice in early childhood education and care o transition o schooling and curriculum o quality assurance examination and inspection o professional development and training o future and imminent changes o case studies of children s lives In addition to describing the legislative political and practical situation in each country the book enables comparisons to be drawn and helps readers interpret the data critically It will be essential reading for modules on comparative education and international perspectives but will also form a foundation for all modules involving policy and provision on Early Years Education Early Childhood or Childhood Studies courses Practitioners undertaking CPD modules or foundation degrees and international students looking for comparative data will also find the book useful

Bahrain, Oman, Qatar, And The Uae Anthony H Cordesman, 2018-02-20 This volume examines the changing economic and internal security challenges faced by the Gulf countries and the problems they face with Iran Iraq and other Gulf states The special military and security needs of Bahrain Oman Qatar and the United Arab Emirates are analyzed here in detail as are their growing demographic problems and export plans

Democracy And Human Rights In The Caribbean Ivelaw L Griffith, 2018-02-02 The Caribbean like regions elsewhere is caught in what has been called democracy s global Third Wave In this volume contributors examine the nature of democratization in the region together with its affiliate human rights The aim is to extend the analysis and debates beyond political democracy and civil and political rights to consider also economic democracy and economic and social rights Early chapters address issues and dilemmas common to the democracy and human rights landscape throughout the region In particular economic crisis drug trafficking and political instability continue to threaten the region s very healthy democracy human rights profiles Next contributors consider how the form of Caribbean democracy and the status of human rights have been influenced by foreign actors and external developments Particular attention is paid to the role of the Organization of American States the United Nations nongovernmental organizations and international law Because the democracy and human rights challenges and dynamics vary across countries the work also offers extensive single country assessments Sound Beginnings Pamela May, Erica Ashford, Gillian Bottle, 2018-09-18 Suggesting ways of teaching young children that practitioners can be confident will be effective this book is essential reading for all reflective practitioners in the Early Years The African Union (AU) Konstantinos D. Magliveras, Gino J. Naldi, 2018-02-28 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this practical analysis of the structure competence and management of The African Union AU provides substantial and readily accessible information for lawyers academics and policymakers likely to have dealings with its activities and data No other book gives such a clear uncomplicated description of the organization s role its rules and how they are applied its place in the framework of international law or its relations with other organizations The monograph proceeds logically from the organization s genesis and historical development to the structure of its membership its various organs and their mandates its role in intergovernmental cooperation and its interaction with decisions taken at the national level Its competence its financial management and the nature and applicability of its data and publications are fully described Systematic in presentation this valuable time saving resource offers the quickest easiest way to acquire a sound understanding of the workings of The African Union AU for all interested parties Students and teachers of international law will find it especially valuable as an essential component of the rapidly growing and changing global legal milieu Conspiracy to Murder Linda Melvern, 2020-05-05 Conspiracy to Murder is a gripping account of the Rwandan genocide one of the most appalling events of the twentieth century Linda Melvern s damning indictment of almost all the key figures and institutions involved amounts to a catalogue of failures that only serves to sharpen the horror of a tragedy that could have been avoided Human Rights: Concept and Standards Janusz Symonides, 2017-09-19 Presenting reflections on the historical perspectives and philosophical foundations of human rights this book provides a detailed analysis of civil and political rights as well as the rights of persons belonging to such vulnerable groups as women children and minorities indigenous people refugees displaced persons and migrant workers The African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights Malcolm D. Evans, Rachel H. Murray, 2002-05-16 In a comparative context N Barney Pitso, A People Betrayed Linda Melvern, 2000-08 In 1994 up to one million people were killed in Rwanda in a deliberate public and political campaign For five years Linda Melvern has worked on the story of this great crime and this book a classic piece of investigative journalism is the result The new and startling information this book contains has the making of an international scandal Melvern reveals how the great powers failed to heed the warnings of the coming catastrophe and refused to recognize the genocide when it began ignoring obligations under international law specifically the genocide convention A set of secret documents leaked to the author from within the Security Council proves that the circumstances of the genocide were suppressed or ignored Protest, Policy, and the Problem of Violence against Women S. Laurel Weldon, 2013-12-09 Violence against women is one of the most insidious social ills facing the world today Yet governmental response is inconsistent ranging from dismissal to aggressive implementation of policies and programs to combat the problem In her comparative study of thirty six democratic governments Laurel Weldon examines the root causes and consequences of the differences in public policy from Northern Europe to Latin America She reveals that factors that often influence the development of social policies do not determine policies on violence against women Neither economic level religion region nor the number of women in government determine governmental responsiveness to this problem Weldon demonstrates for example that Nordic governments take no more action to combat violence against women than Latin American governments even though the Swedish welfare state is often considered a leader in social policy particularly with regard to women s issues Instead the presence of independently organized active women s movements plays a greater role in placing violence against women on the public agenda The breadth and scope of governmental response is greatly enhanced by the presence of an office dedicated to promoting women s status Weldon closes with practical lessons and insights to improve government action on violence against women and other important issues of social justice and democracy The Execution of Strasbourg and Geneva Human Rights Decisions in the National Legal Order M.L. van Emmerik, P.H. Ph.M.C. van Kempen, Tom Barkhuysen, 2021-09-27 In practice and legal doctrine little attention has so far been paid to the position of the applicant who has taken the long road to the European Court of Human Rights Strasbourg or a UN Human Rights Committee Geneva and finally won his her case there Does he or she see any improvement in his her position Does the applicant obtain real reparation The purpose of this book is to demonstrate how individual case decisions from Strasbourg and Geneva are implemented in the national legal order Is there a need for improving this implementation and if so how can such an improvement be achieved In this volume several legal practitioners and scholars deal with the issue of the execution of human rights decisions in the national legal order from different perspectives Emphasis is laid on the execution of Strasbourg decisions in the Dutch legal order but solutions in other Council of Europe member states are also discussed The book is intended for lawyers having a special interest in human rights both at the national and international level The Validation Process for EYPS Jennifer Colloby, 2009-04-30 This book supports all candidates for Early Years Professional Status EYPS as they prepare for the Validation Process Through a series of reflective activities based on case studies of successful candidates this book helps those on the EYP pathway prepare for assessment and build confidence in their own good practice and skills This second edition incorporates the changes to the assessment requirements introduced in September 2008 and references the new Candidate s Handbook Documents of the African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights - Volume 1, 1987-1998 African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights, 2001-12-05 This work provides basic documents and less well known material relating to the jurisprudence emanating from the African Commission on Human and Peoples Rights Included are activity reports adopted by the Commission resolutions and final communiqués from the sessions This is the first attempt to reproduce the many documents of the Commission adopted since its inception in 1987 Murray teaches law at Queen s University Belfast and is a member of the Human Rights Research Unit Evans is professor of human rights at the University of Bristol The book is distributed by ISBS Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Documents of the African Commission on Human and Peoples' Rights - Volume 1, 1987-1998 Rachel Murray, Malcolm Evans, 2001-11-06 Fourteen years since its establishment the work of the African Commission on Human and Peoples Rights has not received the attention that should have been paid to its important contributions towards the promotion and protection of human rights in Africa The aim of this publication is to provide not only the basic documents but also the less well known material related to the jurisprudence emanating from the consideration of communications This volume therefore includes amongst other material the twelve activity reports adopted by the Commission resolutions and final communiqu s from the sessions This is the first attempt to reproduce comprehensively the many documents of the Commission adopted since its inception in 1987 It will be an essential reference for academics students and practitioners The publication is produced in collaboration with the African Society for International and Comparative Law the Centre for Human Rights at the University of Pretoria and Interights in London Concluding Observations of the UN Committee on the Rights of the Child Leif Holmström, 2021-10-11 The Convention on the Rights of the Child was adopted ten years ago on 20 November 1989 by the General Assembly of the United Nations It entered into force on 2 September 1990 At present 191 States have ratified or acceded to this Convention which makes it the most widely accepted human rights treaty ever Under article 44 of the Convention each State party has to submit an initial report within two years of the entry into force of the Convention for that State and thereafter a periodic report every five years The Committee on the Rights of the Child has been formed to monitor the implementation of the Convention At its second session in 1992 the Committee decided that it would adopt at the end of the consideration of each State party s report concluding observations reflecting the main points of discussion and indicating issues that would require a specific follow up The concluding observations provide a general evaluation of the report and of the dialogue with the delegation and make note of positive developments that may have occurred during the period under review factors and difficulties affecting the implementation of the Convention and of specific issues of concern relating to the application of the provisions of the Convention They also include suggestions and recommendations to the State party concerned The present volume contains all concluding observations as well as corresponding preliminary observations adopted by the Committee on the Rights of the Child at its third to seventeenth sessions 1993 1998 on reports from 81 States parties in total Foreword by Mrs Mary Robinson United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights Indigenous Peoples in International Law S. James Anaya, 2004 In this thoroughly revised and updated edition of the first book length treatment of the subject S James Anaya incorporates references to all the latest treaties and recent developments in the international law of indigenous peoples Anaya demonstrates that while historical trends in international law largely facilitated colonization of indigenous peoples and their lands modern international law s human rights program has been modestly responsive to indigenous peoples aspirations to survive as distinct communities in control of their own destinies This book provides a theoretically grounded and practically oriented synthesis of the historical contemporary and emerging international law related to indigenous peoples It will be of great interest to scholars and lawyers in international law and human rights as well as to those interested in the dynamics of indigenous and ethnic identity
