Destination Marketing Steven Pike, 2012-08-06

The tourism market is fiercely competitive No other market place has as many brands competing for attention and yet only a handful of countries account for 75% of the world's visitor arrivals The other 200 or so are left to fight for a share of the remaining 25% Therefore destination marketers at city state and national levels have arguably a far more challenging role than other services or consumer goods marketers Destination Marketing an integrated marketing communication approach focuses on the five core tenets of integrated marketing communications These embody both the opportunities and challenges facing Destination Marketing Organisations DMOs and are

- 1 Profitable customer relationships
- 2 Enhancing stakeholder relationships
- 3 Cross functional processes
- 4 Stimulating purposeful dialogue with customers and
- 5 Generating message synergy

The author seeks to provide a rationale for DMOs to develop a structure roles and goals of DMOs to examine the key challenges and constraints facing DMOs to impart a destination branding process to develop a philosophy of integrated marketing communications to lead the emergence of visitor and stakeholder relationship management and to set forth options for performance measurement
