Surrender To Me The Heartland Series Three English Edition:

Collapse of a Country Nicholas Coghlan, 2017-09-04 The first Canadian diplomat to be posted to war torn Sudan Nicholas Coghlan was a natural choice to lead Canada's representation in the new Republic of South Sudan soon after the country was founded in 2011 In late 2013 Coghlan and his wife Jenny were in the capital Juba when it erupted in gunfire and civil war pitted one half of the army against the other Vice President Machar against President Kiir and the Nuer tribe against the Dinka This action focused narrative grounded by accounts of meetings with key leaders and travels throughout the dangerous impoverished hinterland of South Sudan explains what happened in December 2013 and why In harrowing terms Collapse of a Country describes the ebb and flow of the war and the humanitarian tragedy that followed the Coghlan's scramble to evacuate South Sudanese Canadians from Juba and the well meant but often ill conceived attempts of the international community to mitigate the misery and bring peace back to a land that has rarely known it Coghlan's stark narrative serves as a lesson to politicians diplomats aid workers and practitioners on the breakdown of governance and relationships between ethnic groups and the often decisive role of international development representatives Fast paced and poignant Collapse of a Country gives an insider's glimpse into the chaos violence and ethnic conflicts that emerged out of a civil war that has been largely ignored by the West

Snow and Steel Peter Caddick-Adams, 2014-10-31 Between December 16 1944 and January 15 1945 American forces found themselves entrenched in the heavily forested Ardennes region of Belgium France and Luxembourg defending against an advancing German army amid freezing temperatures deep snow and dense fog Operation Herbstnebel Autumn Mist was a massive German counter offensive that stunned the Allies in its scope and intensity In the end the 40 day long Battle of the Bulge as it has come to be called was the bloodiest battle fought by U S forces in World War II and indeed the largest land battle in American history Before effectively halting the German advance some 89 000 of the 610 000 American servicemen committed to the campaign had become casualties including 19 000 killed The engagement saw the taking of thousands of Americans as prisoners of war some of whom were massacred by the SS but it also witnessed the storied stand by U S forces at Bastogne as German forces besieged the region and culminated in a decisive if costly American victory Ordered and directed by Hitler himself against the advice of his generals the Ardennes offensive was the last major German offensive on the Western Front In the wake of the defeat many experienced German units were left severely depleted of men and equipment Its last reserve squandered these irreplaceable losses would hasten the end of the war In Snow and Steel Peter Caddick Adams draws on interviews with over 100 participants of the campaign as well as archival material from both German and US sources to offer an engagingly written and thorough reassessment of the historic battle Exploring the failings of intelligence that were rife on both sides the effects of weather and the influence of terrain on the battle's outcome Caddick Adams deftly details the differences in weaponry and doctrine between the US and German forces while offering new insights into the origins of the battle the characters of those involved on both the American and German sides from the general staff to the foot soldiers the preparedness of troops and the decisions and tactics that precipitated the German retreat and the American victory Re-examining the SS and German infantry units in the Bulge he shows that far from being deadly military units they were nearly all under strength short on equipment and poorly trained kept in the dark about the attack until the last minute they fought in total ignorance of their opponents or the terrain Ultimately Caddick Adams concludes that the German assault was doomed to failure from the start Aided by an intimate knowledge of the battlefield itself and over twenty years of personal battlefield experience Caddick Adams has produced the most compelling and complete account of the Bulge yet written Interpreting the Ethiopian Revolution Etana H.

Dinka, 2025-10-16 Fifty years after the 1974 Ethiopian revolution Etana H Dinka brings together a who's who of modern Ethiopian studies in order to offer this long overdue analysis of the revolution and its legacies With contributions both from seasoned academics many of whom wrote about the revolution as it developed and from representatives of a younger generation this six-part collection offers new insights not only into the revolution itself but also into issues such as the Red Terror the EPRDF revolution of 1991 and Abiy Ahmed's repositioning of Ethiopia after 2018 Such wide-ranging analyses cumulatively cast Ethiopia's three successive post-revolution regimes not as separate entities but rather as successive attempts to fulfil the promise of the revolution surrounding issues such as ethnicity the nationalities question economic development and the land tenure question In developing this model the collection captures the defining developments and issues in Ethiopia the Horn and the Red Sea region over the past fifty years and it speaks directly to a global body of knowledge about revolutions state-making projects and empires and warfare and military interventions in politics A unique collection that expands the historical revolutionary analyses of Ethiopian politics and society to the present in order to suggest new ways of ensuring social economic and environmental justice for all this book is a must-read for researchers and upper-level students interested in Ethiopia the Horn of Africa African Studies and revolutionary politics and land economics in general The Dun Cow Rib John Lister-Kaye, 2017-08-17 Shortlisted for the Wainwright Prize 2018 John Lister Kaye
