Composed at the end of the 4th century, these five homilies offer a spiritual and pastoral commentary of the Pater Noster. The present volume, edited by Matthieu Cassin (Paris) and H. L. Grellier (Deneux, Paris) and Françoise Vinel (Strasbourg), offers introductory materials, a new English translation, the first edition of the 15th-century Latin translation by Athanasios Chalkeopoulos, together with five studies that form a commentary for the different homilies and nineteen shorter contributions on various aspects of the text. The contributors envisage the text according to exegesis and theology but also to philosophy, rhetoric, and history of Christian communities.

How Are We Going to Explain This? Jelmer Mommers, 2020-11-17 There's a new story in the making, one in which the consequences of our actions add up and every contribution is meaningful. If climate change is the biggest threat humanity has ever faced, then why are we doing so little about it? And where do we go from here? Journalist Jelmer Mommers knows most people prefer not to talk or even think about climate change, and that is exactly why he wrote this book. Denial and despair are not the only possible responses to the current crisis. Drawing on the latest science, Mommers describes how we got here, what possible future awaits us, and how you can help make a difference. Five years in the making, How Are We Going to Explain This? was an instant bestseller in the Netherlands. With this revised and updated translation, including responses to the COVID-19 pandemic, Mommers brings his unique blend of realism and hope to the wider world.
