Drugs, Addiction And Initiation - The Modern Search for Ritual Luigi Zoja, Luigi Zoja argues that the pervasive abuse of drugs in our society can in large part be ascribed to a resurgence of the collective need for initiation and initiatory structures a longing for something sacred underlies our culture's manic drive toward excessive consumption In a society without ritual the drug addict seeks not so much the thrill of a high as the satisfaction of an inner need for a participation mystique in the dominant religion of our times consumerism A far reaching yet incisive cultural analysis The Modern Search for Ritual is a vigorous exposé drawing its methodology from history literature and anthropology as well as Analytical Psychology From its critique of drug cures based on detoxification to its discussion of the esoteric terrorist cult of the Assassins Zoja's work is a classic in the field of psycho anthropology Hindu Ritual at the Margins Linda Penkower, Tracy Pintchman, 2014-10-09 Hindu Ritual at the Margins explores Hindu forms of ritual activity in a variety of marginal contexts The contributors collectively examine ritual practices in diaspora across gender ethnic social and political groups in film text and art in settings where ritual itself or direct discussion of ritual is absent in contexts that create new opportunities for traditionally marginalized participants or challenge the received tradition and via theoretical perspectives that have been undervalued in the academy In the first of three sections contributors explore the ways in which Hindu ritual performed in Indian contexts intersects with historical contextual and social change They examine the changing significance and understanding of particular deities the identity and agency of ritual actors and the instrumentality of ritual in new media Essays in the second section examine ritual practices outside of India focusing on evolving ritual claims to authority in mixed cultures such as Malaysia the reshaping of gender dynamics of ritual at an American temple and the democratic reshaping of ritual forms in Canadian Hindu communities The final section considers the implications for ritual studies of the efficacy of bodily acts divorced from intention contemporary spiritual practice as opposed to religious bound ritual and the notion of dharma Based on a conference on Hindu ritual held in 2006 at the University of Pittsburgh Hindu Ritual at the Margins seeks to elucidate the ways ritual actors come to shape ritual practices or conceptions pertaining to ritual and how studying ritual in marginal contexts at points of dynamic tension requires scholars to reshape their understanding of ritual activity The Market Madness Peter A. Ubel, 2009-01-20 Humans just aren't entirely rational creatures We decide to roll over and hit the snooze button instead of going to the gym We take out home loans we can't possibly afford And did you know that people named Paul are more likely to move to St Paul than other cities All too often our subconscious causes us to act against our own self interest But our free market economy is based on the assumption that we always do act in our own self interest In this provocative book physician Peter Ubel uses his understanding of psychology and behavior to show that in some cases government must regulate markets for our own health and well being And by understanding and controlling the factors that go into our decisions big and small we can all begin to stop the damage we do to our bodies our finances and our economy as a whole Ubel's vivid stories bring his message home for anyone interested in improving the way our society works The Archetypes and the Collective Unconscious C.G. Jung, 2014-12-18 The concept of Archetypes and the hypothesis of A Collective Unconscious are two of Jung's better known and most exciting ideas In this volume taken from the Collected Works and appearing in paperback for the first time Jung describes and elaborates the two concepts Three essays establish the theoretical basis which are then followed by essays on specific archetypes The relation of these to the process of individuation is examined in the last section The Archetypes and the Collective Unconscious is one of Jung's central works There are many illustrations in full colour
