

The background of the cover is a painting of a crowded ballroom. In the center, a woman in a voluminous, light-colored, ruffled gown is dancing or posing. She has a serious expression. Around her are other people in formal evening wear. The lighting is dramatic, with strong highlights and deep shadows, creating a sense of a grand, perhaps stifling, social event.

The Age Of Innocence Annotated:

The Age of Innocence Annotated Edith Wharton, 2021-02-21 The Age of Innocence is a novel by Edith Wharton published to widespread acclaim in 1920 Set in the late 19th century among the monied upper class in America during the gilded age it recreates the setting and cultural details with exceptional realism while contrasting the elegant and mannered facade of the upper classes with their grasping and cruel schemes The story opens at a performance of Faust at the old Academy of Music A man named Newland Archer is in attendance and revels in his success and prospects The scion of one of the wealthiest and most socially important New York families he is a successful lawyer and is set to marry the young beautiful and sheltered May Welland May is an ideal social match for Newland and he anticipates the perfection of their marriage in terms of the parties and connections opening up before him Newland meets May's cousin Countess Ellen Olenska Thirty years old and beautiful Ellen is independent and shows her scorn for the social niceties of wealthy society Ellen is cultured and intelligent but has caused scandal by leaving her husband Count Olenska Newland finds himself powerfully attracted to Ellen and suddenly sees May as a dull and provincial girl When Ellen announces her intention to divorce her husband an act that would ruin the Welland family name one of Newland's law partners asks that he intervene with Ellen and convince her not to Newland begins calling on the Countess in order to convince her that she should simply remain living separately from her husband Newland and Ellen begin corresponding via letters and come to know each other very well as a result Newland enjoys Ellen's intelligence and her willingness to question society's rules and her role in them where May's willingness to play by those rules and conform to her family's wishes seems increasingly unattractive Ellen agrees not to divorce her husband His admiration and attraction to Ellen grows during this period Alarmed at his feelings for Ellen Newland travels to Florida to visit with May and her family and asks May to move up their wedding date because he can sense his resolve crumbling May refuses horrified at upsetting the careful balance of society rules She accuses Newland of having second thoughts about her appropriateness to be his wife and Newland insists he still loves her Newland confesses his love to Ellen who is shocked She agrees to remain in America only if Newland promises they will merely be platonic friends which he does May relents and sends a telegram agreeing to accelerate the wedding plans hinting that she understands better than Newland what is happening Newland and May marry Their marriage is one of convenience there is no love or passion and Newland finds May dull He also finds his old life of parties and social events dull and thinks constantly of Ellen Ellen has moved to Washington D C and their correspondence has ended but Newland finds himself thinking of her constantly He meets Ellen by chance in Newport Rhode Island and finds her circumstances have changed The family has cut off her allowance because Count Olenska wishes her to return to him and she refuses He tells her he wishes her to become his mistress since divorce would be impossible for both of them Ellen initially refuses and returns to New York to care for her grandmother in order to have her allowance reinstated Newland with renewed access to Ellen becomes determined to seize his chance at happiness and keeps pushing Ellen to become his mistress When Ellen tells Newland she will consummate their relationship Newland is ecstatic but then Ellen informs him suddenly that she is returning to Europe without explanation Newland decides to leave May and accompany Ellen there May announces to Newland that she is pregnant however and furthermore tells him she had confessed as much to Ellen earlier Newland understands that Ellen decided The Age of Innocence Edith Wharton,1996-03-01 Edith Wharton's acclaimed novel of love duty and half known truths in Gilded Age New York society with a foreword by bestselling author Elif Batuman Dutiful Newland Archer an eligible young man from New York high society is about to announce his engagement to May Welland a suitable match from a good family when May's cousin the beautiful and exotic Countess Ellen Olenska is introduced into their circle The Countess brings with her an aura of European sophistication and a hint of perceived scandal having left her husband and claimed her independence Her worldliness disregard for society's rules and air of unapproachability attract the sensitive Newland despite his enthusiasm about a marriage to May and the societal advantages it would bring Almost against their will Newland and Ellen develop a passionate bond and a classic love triangle takes shape as the three young people find themselves drawn into a poignant and bitter conflict between love and duty Written in 1920 Edith Wharton's Pulitzer Prize winning novel about a time and place long gone by 1870s New York City beautifully captures the complexities of passion independence and fulfillment and how painfully hard it can be for individuals to truly see one another and their place in the world For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators The Age of Innocence Annotated Book Edith Wharton,2020-07-07 Jane Austen becomes born on December sixteen 1775 at Stevenson Rectory in Hampshire England Her father Reverend George Austen 1731 1805 turned into the rector at Stevenson In 1764 he married Cassandra Leigh Austen 1739 1827 who become from a patrician family Jane Austen changed into the youngest of George and Cassandra's 8 youngsters she had six brothers and one sister The own family changed into tightly knit and Jane was particularly close to her sister Cassandra and her brother Henry who would later become her literary agent The Age of Innocence Edith Wharton,2021-05-03 In the Newland Archer plot Wharton presents one of her favorite themes the sacrifice of artistic romantic impulses for family duty and societal respectability Newland Archer a young lawyer from one of New York's best families thinks he is in love with the exotic Countess Ellen Olenska and even entertains the thought of leaving his wife for her but when he learns that his wife May is pregnant he abandons all hope of love and happiness and decides to stay with May The difficulty of genuine human communication in the upper strata of society is an important theme in the Archer plot Newland Archer lives in what Wharton calls a kind of hieroglyphic world where the real thing was never said or done or even thought but only represented by a set of arbitrary signs Most of the important personal communications between Archer and his wife are left unsaid Many times Archer imagines what she is saying to him or more complicated yet what she thinks he is saying to her but of course Archer may be reading the hieroglyphics wrong Because so little that is felt is actually expressed Archer at times appears to be having an internal dialogue with himself The Age of Innocence "Annotated" History & Criticism Edith Wharton,2020-05 Edith Wharton January 24 1862 August 11 1937 was an American novelist short story writer and designer The Age of Innocence "Annotated" American Literature Edith Wharton,2020-05-02 Edith Wharton January 24 1862 August 11 1937 was an American novelist short story writer and designer The Age of Innocence "Annotated" Romantic Edith Wharton,2020-05-20 Edith Wharton January 24 1862 August 11 1937 was an American novelist short story writer and designer The Age of Innocence "Annotated" Literature & Fiction Edith Wharton,2020-05 Edith Wharton January 24 1862 August 11 1937 was an American novelist short story writer and designer
