Hand in Hand Diane P. Wormsley, Frances Mary D'Andrea, A Comprehensive Guide to Geriatric Rehabilitation E-Book Timothy L. Kauffman, Ronald W. Scott, John O. Barr, Michael L. Moran, 2014-09-05. Now in its third edition, this trusted clinical guide enables both the busy practitioner and student to review or to learn about a range of pathologies, conditions, examinations, diagnostic procedures, and interventions that can be effectively used in the physical rehabilitation of older people. It presents a broad overview of age-related physiological changes as well as specific professional discipline perspectives. Organized into eleven distinct and interrelated units, the first unit begins with key anatomical and physiological considerations seen with aging, which have significant impact on the older person. The second and third units go on to review important aging-related conditions and disorders of the musculoskeletal and neuromuscular/neurological systems, respectively. Neoplasms commonly encountered in older people are the focus of the fourth unit, while aging-related conditions of the cardiovascular, pulmonary, integumentary, and sensory systems are presented in units five through seven. Unit eight highlights a range of specific clinical problems and conditions commonly encountered with older patients. Critically, all of these units emphasize important examination and diagnostic procedures needed for a thorough evaluation and stress interventions that can be of significant benefit to the older patient. The ninth unit presents select physical therapeutic interventions that are especially important in managing rehabilitative care. Key societal issues related to aging are discussed in the tenth unit. Finally, the concluding eleventh unit focuses on the successful rehabilitation team that includes both professional and non-professional caregiver members. A trusted guide to the conditions and problems faced when evaluating and treating geriatric patients. Extensive coverage over 84 chapters, each written by an expert in the field. Includes imaging, vision, and the aging ear. Cross-referenced, providing the complexity and interrelatedness of comorbidities common to aging patients. Collaborative international perspective. Chapters on the aging spine, frailty, safe pilates for bone health, health care for older people. Additional renowned editor Ronald W. Scott. Revised title to reflect the comprehensive scope of content covered previously, entitled Geriatric Rehabilitation Manual.

Multisensory Shakespeare and Specialized Communities Sheila T. Cavanagh, 2024-01-25. How can theatre and Shakespearean performance be used with different communities to assist personal growth and development while advancing social justice goals? Employing an integrative approach that draws from science, actor training, therapeutic practices, and current research on the senses, this study reveals the work being done by drama practitioners with a range of specialized populations, such as incarcerated people, neurodiverse individuals, those with physical or emotional disabilities, veterans, people experiencing homelessness, and many others With insights drawn from visits to numerous international programs it argues that these endeavors succeed when they engage multiple human senses and incorporate kinesthetic learning thereby tapping into the diverse benefits associated with artistic movement and mindfulness practices Neither theatre nor Shakespeare is universally beneficial but the syncretic practices described in this book offer tools for physical emotional and collaborative undertakings that assist personal growth and development while advancing social justice goals Among the practitioners and companies whose work is examined here are programs from the Shakespeare in Prison Network the International Opera Theater Blue Apple Theatre Flute Theatre DeCruit and Feast of Crispian programs for veterans Extant Theatre and prison programs in Kolkata and Mysore India

The Apple Cart, Too True to Be Good, on the Rocks, and Millionairess Bernard Shaw, 2021 The four dramas in this volume are some of George Bernard Shaw's most interesting plays They stretch from 1929 to 1935 and coincide with the Great Depression the intensification of the crisis of democracy that began after the war and the rise of totalitarianism all of which find expression in these plays They also signal the beginning of an important new phase in Shaw's writing one marked especially by the development of two new Shaw genres the political extravaganza and the political allegory The Apple Cart 1929 marked Shaw's return to playwriting after the long hiatus that followed Saint Joan 1923 The Apple Cart is perhaps the most pointed critique of parliamentary democracy in the entire Shawian canon Too True to Be Good

1931 is another political extravaganza with the opening stage direction The patient is sleeping heavily Near her in the easy chair sits a Monster signaling that Shaw is advancing further into uncharted dramaturgical territory He began writing shortly before his trip to the Soviet Union and finished the play and wrote the preface after his return In the preface Shaw asserts that the USSR is a new Catholic church The dark mood continues in Shaw s next play On the Rocks 1933 which Shaw subtitled a political comedy It is reminiscent of The Apple Cart in that it is sharply focused on British politics and set in the Cabinet Room at 10 Downing Street during the economic depression of the 1930s Shaw started writing The Millionairess in 1934 and finished it in 1935 On the surface it is a simple comedy and if not for the preface we might acquiesce to Shaw s assessment that the play oes not pretend to be anything more than a comedy of humorous and curious contemporary characters such as Ben Jonson might write Yet the preface appended to the play is entirely about leadership and declaims at great length on Mussolini and Hitler

Meeting Community Needs Pamela H. MacKellar, 2015-12-15 Librarians must know how to provide essential programs and services that make a difference for the people they serve if libraries are going to survive It is no longer realistic for librarians to rely on the idea that people love libraries so they will fund them in this economic climate Librarians must be able to prove that their programs and services are making a difference if they want to compete for funding in their municipalities schools corporations colleges institutions and organizations Meeting Community Needs A Practical Guide for Librarians presents a process that librarians of all kinds can use to provide effective programs and services This requires being in close touch with your community whether it is a city town or village college or university public or private school or corporation hospital or business Understanding what information people need how they access it how they use it how it benefits them and how they share it is paramount The process in this book covers community assessment designing programs and services to meet needs implementing and evaluating programs and services and funding options Providing library programs and services for your entire population not just library users is more important than ever Librarians working in libraries of all types must provide programs and services that meet community needs if libraries are to stay relevant and survive in the long run Librarians must be able to measure their success and demonstrate the library s worth with verifiable proof if they are going to be competitive for available funds in the future Meeting Community Needs will make you take a serious look at how well your library programs and services are meeting your community s needs and it will show you the way to success
