The Apostolic Church Gh Hymnal:

Hymns of the Apostolic Church John Brownlie, 2018-06-13 Although most of the poetry and hymns from the Apostolic father is no longer with us what has been preserved is given here in a beautiful form translated faithfully from the original Greek The translator is a gifted poet that was awarded high honours for his work on this and other projects Leaving the task to translate such vivid and real poetry from such a time as we have not seen before could only be handled by a true poet at heart These hymns will bring you to a time and place where the gospel was being preached boldly and will embolden you to take on the evangelical call to spread the word of our saviour Jesus Christ Hymnal Velma C. Williams, 1890 The Evangelical Presbyterian Church, Ghana, and Her Musical Tradition Alexander Akorlie Agordoh, 2004 The Hymns of Luke's Infancy Narratives Stephen Farris, 2015-01-29 These hymns the Magnificat Benedictus and Nunc Dimittis are a familiar part of Christian liturgy but their origin is uncertain their meaning debated and their significance within Luke Acts often ignored This monograph argues that they were composed in Hebrew by Jewish Christian poets and were incorporated by the evangelist as anticipating certain key themes of his own work Dictionary of the Apostolic Church James Hastings, John Alexander Selbie, John Chisholm Lambert, 1919 The Countess of Huntingdon's Hymns, and Appendix ... A New Edition. [With a Preface by G. H., I.e. G. Hewlings.] Selina HASTINGS (Countess of Huntingdon.), 1849 Translating the Devil Birgit Meyer, 2019-08-06 This book offers an ethnography of the emergence of a local Christianity and its relation to changing social political and economic formations among the Peki Ewe in Ghana Focusing on the Evangelical Presbyterian Church which arose from encounters between the Ewe and German Pietist missionaries the author examines recent conflicts leading to the secession of many pentecostally oriented members which it places in a historical perspective The main argument is that for the Ewe involvement with modernity goes hand in hand with new enchantment rather than disenchantment of the world At the grassroots level the study focuses on the image of the Devil which the missionaries communicated to the Ewe through translation and which currently receives much attention in the Pentecostal churches It is shown that this image played and still plays a crucial role in the local appropriation of Christianity since diabolisation confirmed the existence of local gods and witchcraft and incorporated them into Christian belief as demons Comparing the discourses and practices of mission and Pentecostal churches the study reveals that the latter pay much more attention to Satan especially through deliverance rituals Pentecostalism s increasing popularity thus stems from the fact that it ties into historically generated local understandings of Christianity which despite a declared dislike of non Christian religious practices stand much closer to Ewe religion than missionary Christianity With its emphasis on the hybrid image of the Devil and people s obsessions with occult forces as a way to mediate the attractions and discontents of modernity this book sheds light on a hitherto neglected dimension in studies of African Christianity Word Made Global Mark R. Gornik, 2011-07-22 A groundbreaking work of ethnography urban studies and theology Mark Gornik s Word Made Global explores the recent development of African Christianity in New York City Drawing especially on ten years of intensive research into three very different African immigrant churches Gornik sheds light on the pastoral spiritual and missional dynamics of this exciting global transnational Christian movement

Ecclesiology in Africa David K. Ngaruiya, Rodney L. Reed, 2024-11-14 In spite of persecution and waning in some areas of the world Christianity in Africa has continued to grow Yet alongside the flourishing of the church comes challenges of syncretism and pluralism In this ninth volume from the annual conference of the Africa Society of Evangelical Theology contributors explore the African Christian s understanding of church through contextual ecclesiology These African theologians address irrefutable realities for the African church while covering an extensive range of topics such as the priesthood of all believers the functions and ministries of church in society and church growth strategies Presenting ecclesiology through the lenses of scriptural examinations historical theology systematic examinations and practical theology these essays work together to build a contemporary understanding of the burgeoning church in Africa through African voices

Indigenous People and the Christian Faith: A New Way Forward William H. U. Anderson, Charles Muskego, 2020-04-15 Indigenous People and the Christian Faith A New Way Forward provides detailed historical cultural and theological background and analysis to a very delicate and pressing subject facing many people around the world The book is glocal both local and global as represented by international scholars Every continent is represented by both Indigenous and non indigenous people who desire to make a difference with the delicate problematics and relationships The history of Indigenous people around the world is inextricably linked with Christianity and Colonialism The book is completely interdisciplinary by employing historians literary critics biblical scholars and theologians sociologists philosophers and ordained engineers The Literary Intent of the book without presuming nor claiming too much for itself is to provide practical thinking that will help all people move past the pain and dysfunction of the past toward mutual understanding communication and practical actions in the present and future

Armenian Neume System of Notation R. A. At'ayan, Vrej N Nersessian, Vrej N. Nersessian, 2013-11-19 The study of the Armenian system of notation called Khazs Neumes is of significance both for Armenian and Byzantine music from a historical and aesthetic point of view Over the centuries the Armenian people have created a musical culture which is largely inaccessible because of the fact that to this day the medieval notation of this music has not been deciphered Prof R A At'ayan s unique study based on the abundant manuscript sources of the Institute of Ancient Manuscripts Erevan not only traces the origin and development of this notation system convincingly but also re creates the tunes of the numerous chants and songs composed over the centuries
