After the Apocalypse Srećko Horvat, 2021-02-11 In this post apocalyptic rollercoaster ride philosopher Srećko Horvat invites us to explore the Apocalypse in terms of revelation rather than as the end itself He argues that the only way to prevent the end i e extinction is to engage in a close reading of various interconnected threats such as climate crisis the nuclear age and the ongoing pandemic Drawing on the work of neglected philosopher Günther Anders this book outlines a philosophical approach to deal with what Horvat borrowing a term from climate science and giving it a theological twist calls eschatological tipping points These are no longer just the nuclear age or climate crisis but their collision conjoined with various other major threats not only pandemics but also the viruses of capitalism and fascism In his investigation of the future of places such as Chernobyl the Mediterranean and the Marshall Islands as well as many others affected by COVID 19 Horvat contends that the revelation appears simple and unprecedented the alternatives are no longer socialism or barbarism our only alternatives today are a radical reinvention of the world or mass extinction After the Apocalypse is an urgent call not only to mourn tomorrow's dead today but to struggle for our future while we can Dealing with Disasters from Early Modern to Modern Times Hanneke Asperen, Lotte Jensen, 2025-10-01 Disasters are as much cultural as natural phenomena For centuries news about catastrophic events has been disseminated through media such as chronicles pamphlets newspapers poems drawings and prints Nowadays we are overwhelmed with news about the cataclysmic effects of recent forest fires floods and storms Due to the ongoing climate crisis extreme weather events will likely have ever greater impacts on our lives This volume addresses cultural representations of catastrophes such as floods epidemics and earthquakes over the centuries In the past as now artists and authors try to make sense of disasters grasp their impact and communicate moral religious or political messages These creations reflect and shape how people learn and think about disasters that occur nearby or far away both in time and space The parallels between past and present underline how this book contributes to modern debates about cultural and creative strategies in response to disasters Supernatural and Philosophy Galen A. Orlov, 2005 Andrei A Orlov examines the tradition about the seventh antediluvian patriarch Enoch tracing its development from its roots in the Mesopotamian lore to the Second Temple apocalyptic texts and later rabbinic and Hekhalot materials where Enoch is often identified as the supreme angel Metatron The first part of the book explores the imagery of the celestial roles and titles of the seventh antediluvian hero in Mesopotamian Enochic and Hekhalot materials The analysis of the celestial roles and titles shows that the transition from the figure of patriarch Enoch to the figure of angel Metatron occurred already in the Second Temple Enochic materials namely in 2 Slavonic Enoch a Jewish work traditionally dated to the first century CE The second part of the book demonstrates that mediatorial polemics with the traditions of the exalted patriarchs and prophets played an important role in facilitating the transition from Enoch to Metatron in the Second Temple period
