

A thank-you note for all paraprofessionals...

For teacher appreciation week, we wanted to extend a special thank you to all of the paraprofessionals. Thank you for supporting all of our students in school. You support, you teach, you lead, you love. You are amazing!! Thank you!!

Sincerely,

Dr. Julie Causton

The Indigenoussness of Paraprofessionals Employed in New York State's Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program Barbara Bremner,1992

The Library Paraprofessional Terry Rodgers,1997 In the United States an estimated 60 percent of library workers do not hold so called professional positions Variouslly called clerks assistants specialists technicians aides and mini librarians these paraprofessionals are the foundation for library services in many communities They provide vital services including many tasks generally associated with professional librarians that allow libraries to function efficiently and effectively Despite the importance of the support staff little attention has been given to the challenges they face on a daily basis The issues these frontline employees encounter are often similar to those of their professional colleagues but also include such concerns as extremely low pay harsher working conditions and less opportunity for advancement This work first examines the history of the paraprofessional in librarianship and then explores the most common problems faced by support staff
