Theology Music and Modernity addresses the question how can the study of music contribute to a theological reading of modernity It has grown out of the conviction that music has often been ignored in narrations of modernity s theological struggles Featuring contributions from an international team of distinguished theologians musicologists and music theorists the volume shows how music and discourse about music has remarkable powers to bring to light the theological currents that have shaped modern culture It focuses on the concept of freedom concentrating on the years 1740 1850 a period when freedom especially religious and political freedom became a burning matter of concern in virtually every stratum of Western society The collection is divided into four sections each section focusing on a key phenomenon of this period the rise of the concept of revolutionary freedom the move of music from church to concert hall the cry for eschatological justice in the work of black hymn writer and church leader Richard Allen and the often fierce tensions between music and language There is a particular concern to draw on a distinctively Scriptural imagination especially the theme of New Creation in order to elicit the key issues at stake and to suggest constructive ways forward for a contemporary Christian theological engagement with the legacies of modernity today Guide to the Pianist's Repertoire Maurice Hinson, Wesley Roberts, 2024-06-06 Guide to the Pianist's Repertoire continues to be the go to source for piano performers teachers and students Newly updated and expanded with more than 250 new composers this incomparable resource expertly guides readers to solo piano literature and provides answers to common questions What did a given composer write What interesting work have I never heard of How difficult is it What are its special musical features How can I reach the publisher New to the fourth edition are enhanced indexes identifying black composers women composers and compositions for piano with live or recorded electronics a thorough listing of anthologies and collections organized by time period and nationality now including collections from Africa and Slovakia and expanded entries to account for new material works and resources that have become available since the third edition including websites and electronic resources The newest Hinson will be an indispensable guide for many years to come International Piano Quarterly ,2000 The American Music Teacher ,1996 Clavier ,2006 A Cellist's Companion Henk Lambooj, Michael Feves, 1999 The first comprehensive catalog of cello music END OF YEAR SALE the HARDCOVER edition is on sale for 95 Euros reduced from 149 Euros with free postage at www.cellocompanion.com the same price of the Lulu paperback edition Over 35 years of compilation has resulted in the very first comprehensive catalogue of cello music including approximately 45 000 titles by 15 000 composers Listed alphabetically by composer are works for cello solo cello and piano cello and orchestra duos cello ensemble music solo cello with chamber ensemble two or more soloists and orchestra cello and voice methods and studies An index by instrumentation is also included This unique project to compile all music ever written for cello solo published or unpublished in print or out of print is a reference work that will immediately become every cellist's companion Alun Hoddinott R. Craggs Stewart, 2017-11-30 Alun Hoddinott is the most important living Welsh composer and one of the most distinguished and prolific composers of his generation internationally His works have been performed in major centres as far afield as Tokyo and Berlin Melbourne and Leipzig New York and Venice as well as the major festivals in Wales and England He is one of the very few composers to have been commissioned to compose a concerto for Mstislav Rostropovitch Born in Bargoed Glamorganshire in August 1929 Alun Hoddinott started to play the violin and compose at an early age Some of his works were performed and broadcast whilst he was a student at University College Cardiff and he later studied with the Australian composer and pianist Arthur Benjamin His first major success was his Clarinet Concerto No 1 given by Gervaise de Peyer and the Halle Orchestra under John Barbirolli at the 1954 Cheltenham Music Festival This Source Book lists all Hoddinott's compositions from 1946 to 2005 almost 60 years of phenomenal output and shows he has achieved a mastery of composition which embraces almost every musical medium With information given on first performances manuscript
