line with the established principles of competition law is not sufficient Specifically the framework is not equipped to govern the conduct of multinational telecommunications groups that have a strong presence in the telecommunications sector Major factors hampering efficient competition regulation include Uganda s sole reliance on sector specific competition rules restricted available remedies and a regulator with limited experience of enforcing competition legislation The weaknesses in the framework strongly suggest the need to adopt an economy wide competition law Lastly wireless technology is the main means through which the population in Uganda accesses telecommunications services Greater emphasis should be placed on regulating conduct in the wireless communications markets
