

EXAMPLE ON HOW TO ANSWER CASE STUDY?

Sample case :

Farid was a director of Lotos Mall. He instructed his manager to sell some items at the higher price than they advertised. Thus, the company had been sued for misdescription offences. Farid has been blamed for the offence. However, Farid claimed that the company that was to be blame for the offence, not him. Was the offence committed by Lotos Mall or by Farid?

1. Issue :

- a. Whether the company can be blamed solely for the offences or not
- b. Whether farid can be held responsible for that offences of misdescription of price or the Lotos Mall?

2. Formulation : In Farid situation, Farid should be held responsible for the offence. It is because he had given instruction his manager to sell some of the items at a higher price. When a company commit wrong action, the company cannot think or act by himself to commit such wrong action. Thus we have to look behind the veil of the company to determine the person who shall be responsible for the wrong doing.

3. Legal Principle and supporting case :

Section 20 CA provides that a company incorporated under this Act is a body corporate and shall :

- (a) have legal personality separate from that of its members; and
- (b) continue in existence until it is removed from the register.

Further, Section 21 states that the companies will have unlimited capacity and will be capable of exercising all the functions of a body corporate and have the full capacity to carry on or undertake any business or activity including:

- (a) to sue and be sued;
- (b) to acquire, own, hold, develop or dispose of any property;
- (c) to do any act which it may do or to enter into transactions.

A company shall have the full rights, powers and privileges for the above purposes.

Supporting case :

In the case of SALOMON v SALOMON & CO. LTD

Salomon, a sole trader as a leather and boot merchant sold his business to Salomon & Co. Ltd, a company he formed with his wife and children. Payment for the purchase was partially effected debentures issued by the company to Salomon. The company later went into liquidation and its assets were not enough to satisfy its creditors. Mr. Salomon however claim priority over the other debtors as he was a secured creditor.

Held: Mr. Salomon the creditor is a person separate and distinct from Salomon & Co. Ltd even though Mr. Salomon was the majority shareholder of the company.

Uzelac, Stefaan Voet, 2021-06-23 Not so long ago class actions were considered to be a textbook example of American exceptionalism many of their main features were assumed to be incompatible with the culture of the civil law world However the tide is changing while there are now trends in the USA toward limiting or excluding class actions notorious cases like Dieselgate are moving more and more European jurisdictions to extend the reach of their judicial collective redress mechanisms For many new fans of class actions collective redress has become a Holy Grail of sorts a miraculous tool that will rejuvenate national systems of civil justice and grant them unprecedented power Still while the introduction of various forms of representative action has virtually become a fashion it is anything but certain that attempting to transplant American style class action will be successful European judicial structures and legal cultures are fundamentally different which poses a considerable challenge This book investigates whether class actions in Europe are indeed a Holy Grail or just another wrong turn in the continuing pursuit of just and effective means of protecting the rights of citizens and businesses It presents both positive and critical perspectives supplemented by case studies on the latest collectivization trends in Europe's national civil justice systems The book also shares the experiences of some non European jurisdictions that have developed promising hybrid forms of collective redress such as Canada Brazil China and South Africa In closing a selection of topical international cases that raise interesting issues regarding the effectiveness of class actions in an international context are studied and discussed

Management Reforms Thomas Elston, 2024-04-30. Why do top-down reforms to public services so often over-promise and under-deliver? Using five concepts from psychology, economics, and organisational sociology, Thomas Elston addresses this pressing question of good governance. Rather than focusing on the challenge of implementation, Understanding and Improving Public Management Reforms reveals how flawed policy design is often the major contributor to reform failure. Cognitive bias, restrictive social institutions, and inattention to quiet costs during the policy-making process are essential to explaining the poor track record of reforms to date and point the way towards better decision-making in future. Written for policy professionals, service managers, students, and researchers alike, this concise, practical, and multidisciplinary study draws on varied examples to help reconceive the perennial problem of public management reform and to propose new solutions.

The Law Magazine and Review, 1895. Studies in the History and Development of the University of Aberdeen Peter John Anderson, 1906. Aberdeen University Studies, 1906. The Heroes of the Judicial Periphery Alan Uzelac, Stefaan Voet, 2025-05-01. This book assesses the role of court experts, court clerks, and court staff and other actors on the judicial periphery who play an important role and often co-determine the pace, outcome, and tone of the judicial process. In national civil justice systems, the limelight is all too often cast on the main actors: judges, lawyers, and parties, but the court's support staff can sometimes be overlooked. This book explores their role. The knowledge and skills of experts may be indispensable at times, but it is among the most expensive, complicated, and time-consuming means of evidence. The judges adjudicate, but where experts are involved in the process, they have a decisive impact on the outcome of litigation. Therefore, a principal focus of the book is on experts and how they are appointed, managed, and remunerated across Europe and the world. Other ancillary professions may also be decisive for effective provision of court services. Different jurisdictions have different rules and habits, but inevitably recognise the need of adequate support for judges. Sometimes judges command the whole team of clerks and lawyers; sometimes they share a secretary or a clerk. But in all cases, those who assist judges in their daily work have a significant impact on the effectiveness and quality of the judicial process and its outcome The book considers the contribution of different actors including clerks secretaries advisors counsels and reporters It focuses on cooperation and the interplay between judges and other professional actors in litigation
